Benefit Card Party
The Perpetual Help Society will hold a benefit card party at St. Mary's Hospital Thursday, Apr. 24. at 2 p m. Mrs. Peter Carlin is chairman and Mrs. James Campbell is co-chairman.

The CWV's stand is similar to that taken by Secretary of Labor Louis B. Schwellenbach, who, speaking before the House Labor ing the Communist Party so that its members could not can for public office or hold official post-tions in labor unions or other public or sembpublic organiza-tions. Secretary Schwellenbach's statement was later indorsed in principle by Attorney General Tom Clark.
