Ladies of Charity Units Aid Monastery Plan Meetings and Slate Rummage Sale

By MARGARET KENNEDY

The ladies of Corpus Christi Unit were entertained to hold its regular monthly meeting Monday evening in the Recreation Building. They report that they made $5.00 at the card party given by the members of the Committee. Admission is thirty-five cents and tickets are on sale in the hall.

The Nativity of Our Lady will receive Holy Communion in a body at the eight-thirty Mass on Sunday morning. As this is the Feast of Our Lady of Good Counsel, the members are asked to offer their Communions in Her honor for the success of the Deanery meeting, which is being held on Sunday afternoon in Geneva.

Members of the Junior Nodality held a dance in the Knights of Columbus ballroom on Friday evening, April 11. About fifty couples enjoyed both round and square dancing from nine until twelve. Miss Dorothy Caristantis was chairman and was assisted by Miss Patricia Mackey, Miss Mary Lou Baker, Raymond Kimball, Miss Theresa Hughes, Richard Rohde, Miss Margaret Hanik and Rita Rasmuth.

Corning Weddings

Spears - Murray

Corning — The marriage of Miss Dorothy L. Spears, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Spears 178 W. First St., and William B. Murray, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Murray of Addison, took place Saturday, April 12 in St. Mary's Church. The Rev. John A. Smith, pastor, performed the ceremony.

Attending the couple were Miss Eulas Cox of Addison and Pvt. Lawrence D. Murray Jr., brother of the bridegroom. John B. Murray of Addison and Quenten Depew of Corning were ushers.

Following the ceremony a reception for 100 guests was held at the home of the bride's parents after which the couple left for Buffalo and Canada.

The bride, a graduate of St. Mary's Parochial School and Corning Free Academy, has been employed by the Ingersoll-Rand Company in Painted Post. Mr. Murray, also an Ingersoll-Rand employe, is a graduate of Addison High School and is a Navy veteran of two and one-half years service.

Mr. and Mrs. Murray are living at 178 W. First St.

Costa Rican Primate Backs Truman Plan

San Jose, Costa Rica — (NC) — Moral grounds must be the basis of the support of President Harry S. Truman in his opposition to the expansion of communism, Archbishop Victor Sanabria, of San Jose, Primate of Costa Rica, declared when he was asked by the newspaper, La Prensa Libre, to outline the Church's stand in regard to the U. S. program.

"Because of their faith," Archbishop Sanabria said, "Christians are obliged to condemn and oppose any form of socialism, but for a Christian conscience, condemnation of Communism must be based on a more solid foundation than the political convenience of the moment.

"As a philosophy, atheistic socialism and its different forms [illegible] Christian conscience. Mr. Truman is a Christian, so I suppose his declaration means before all a conservation of socialistic and communistic philosophy."

Shower Held For Bride-To-Be

[illegible] A surprise shower was given for Miss [illegible] Commander, by the [illegible] Auxiliary Committee [illegible] Miss Pallette and [illegible] at Pratt's restaurant [illegible] evening. [illegible] will be wanted [illegible] meeting April 28. [illegible] asked the attendants [illegible] the home-like [illegible]

[illegible] Unit will meet [illegible] Wednesday afternoon [illegible] Our Lady of Mercy [illegible] Committee will meet [illegible] Thursday afternoon. Both of these Committees meet at St. John's Hall on the corner of Lake and East Second Streets.

The Case Committee of Catholic Charities will meet on April 29 in the Federation Building offices. Miss Mary Newsome will preside.

In compliance with a request made by the Rev. John E. Randall, committees will not schedule any meetings on April 28 or 29 because of the Industrial Conference which is being held in Rochester on these dates.

Catholic Charities is awaiting to receive applications of prospective foster parents. The need is greater than usual because of the lack of applications.

The position of Children's Service Case worker in the Catholic Charities office has not been filled. Applications will be considered at the office. A person experienced in children's work is preferred.

St. Rose of Lima Committee will hold a picnic supper in the Catholic Charities office on Monday evening, May 12. Further plans for the supper will be announced next week.

Some people are still collecting greeting cards and stamps for the Dominican Monastery. In spite of our many pleas, when the report came from the Missions, it was found that Elmira sent one of the smallest amounts of stamps. We urge all members of Ladies of Charity to save all their cancelled stamps and bring them to the Catholic Charities Office.

A word of thanks to the Infant of Prague Committee for supplying the food for the Monastery last week and also for doing the shopping. St. Rose of Lima Committee will supply the food next week.

The Naval Reserve League will hold a rummage sale on Saturday of this week at the store on North Main Street. If anyone has anything to donate to the girls they will appreciate it if you will call Mrs. James Goodwin phone 2-7156 and she will have someone call for it.

The Camp Villa Maria executive [illegible] on Tuesday evening at eight o'clock to make preliminary plans for the Camp. The Camp period time has been alloted from July 29 to August 14. To those who have registered at the Camp in other years, nothing more need be said because Camp Division of the time for boys Villa Maria is so well known, and girls has not been made but tentative reservations may be made at the Camp Office at any time. Further plans will be announced after this week's meeting.

Easter vacation offered an excellent opportunity for the Big Sisters activities. Several of the little Sisters, dressed in their Easter finery, were guests of their Big Sisters at the movies during Easter week. The members of this committee held a dinner meeting at the Mark Twain Hotel during the second week in April. Miss Mary FitzGerald, who was a guest of the committee, discussed the Big Sister's activities which are being carried on and pointed out further possibilities to the members. The Big Sisters discussed plans for a rummage sale. They feel that everyone is planning them for the spring so they are "going to be different and hold their's next Fall." So if anyone has any winter things that do not sell at the spring sales, they hope that you will keep them in mind.

St. Vincent De Paul Film

Paris — (ENS) — Production of "Mr. Vincent," a movie on the life of St. Vincent de Paul has been started by The Italian Cinemonst Studios here. Production costs are being met by donations from thousands of persons. The Little Sisters of St. Vincent de Paul have been asked to direct a publicity campaign for the movie.
