Newmanites Urged to be 'Apostles Of Campus by Bishop at Convention

TO IMPOSE PALLIUM

Dubuque—(NC)—His Excellency Archbishop Amleto Giovanni Cicognani, Apostolic Delegate to the United States, will impose the pallium on Archbishop Henry P. Rohlman of Dubuque in St. Raphael's Cathedral on June 18.

Catholic students from secular colleges throughout all New York State received their commissions as "apostles of the campus" from Bishop James E. Kearney at the convention of the Newman Club Federation's Central New York Province last weekend.

From the stage of Columbus Civic Centre ballroom, Bishop Kearney addressed the young convention delegates, urging them to accept the responsibility entailed in their membership in a Newman Club.

"Any member of a Newman Club will improve himself spiritually," declared the Bishop, "but he must also perform an apostleship on the campus."

Explaining the necessity of living up to the Newman purpose fostering of intellectual, social and spiritual activities the Rochester prelate told his young audience: "It will be one of the happiest memories of your school years that you contributed to the spiritual life of your school mates."

"Because of your charity, kindness and zeal, some student who might have lost his faith may have been rescued by you."

He counseled his young audience to ask the Holy Ghost for wisdom to continue their campus apostolate reminding them of their obligation to be examples of Christian life in their everyday school contacts.

The Bishop's brief address was given following Mass which formally opened the convention Saturday morning.

Morning sessions with the delegates featured a discussion by the Misses Carlene Koenan and Eleanor Murphy of Nazareth College on the National Student Council.

The young people were given still another responsibility, that of choosing between peace and world suicide, by Miss Mary Sheehan, principal-elect of Monroe High School and president of the New York State Teachers Association who spoke at the banquet Saturday afternoon in Hotel Shelton.

Miss Sheehan termed the present era, "the most exciting, and most terrible period of world history."

Deploring "lack of self-discipline" and "worship of science," she called for a return to fundamentals urging the Newmanites to cling to "absolute values held precious by men since the beginning of time."

The Rev. Donald M. Cleary, Catholic chaplain at Cornell University presided as toastmaster at the luncheon.

Discussion on the matrimonial laws of the Catholic Church, Sir Rings, and the Bible held the convention spotlight on Saturday afternoon with the Rev. Dr. John E. Maney, the Rev. Dr. Elmer McNamara and Rev. Benedict Ehmann on the speakers' program.

In his talk on marriage Father Maney pointed up the opposition by non-Catholics to the doctrines of the Church on the sacrament of Matrimony. "These are the doctrines which are most under fire, he stated, "but the Church can preach only those doctrines given to her by Christ, and His teachings to the Apostles on matrimony can be found in the Bible."

Closing of the convention was marked by a Communion breakfast following the Mass at 9 a. m.

In Columbus Civic Centre, Emmett J. Schnepp, Rochester attorney and ex-F.B.I. man, was speaker.

The convention program was in charge of Robert Hennessy, chairman, who was assisted by John Cahill and Mary Anne Kennedy as co-chairman. Paul Abel was conference treasurer and the Rev. John D. Malley, chaplain of the University of Rochester Newman Club, was conference chaplain.

Lourdes Five Win Court Trophy in Church League

Our Lady of Lourdes basketball five by defeating the AZA quint, 29-27 won the Church League Basketball championship. Team members were presented with the League Trophy at a sports dinner Monday evening in the Elmira Y. M. C. A.

More than 200 were present to pay tribute to the various teams and individuals who have been outstanding in the competition sponsored by the local Y. league officials reported.

The final game was a thrilling overtime contest held on the Neighborhood House Court, Thursday night of last week.

In the last of a three-game playoff for the trophy the Lourdes five came through with the winning overtime tally by Brown. In the final two seconds of the regular game Green of AZA sank a basket to tie the score. A record crowd jammed the gymnasium to cheer both teams. This is the second consecutive year Lourdes has taken the Church League championship.

Corning Rites Held For Joseph F. Roche

Corning—Joseph F. Roche, 53, died at Corning Hospital, Monday, April 21. He was born in Charlestown Township near Elkland and came to Corning as a young man to follow the harnessing trade. He established his own business and carried on until recently when ill health forced him to retire. For many years he was a member of St. Vincent de Paul's Church where he served for a time as president of the Holy Name Society. After moving his home to the Southside, Mr. Roche became a communicant of St. Mary's Church.

Mr. Roche and Miss Frieda Julia Murray of Addison Hill were married in [illegible] Church, Elkland. Besides his wife he is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Phineas Kuhl of Mansfield, Pa.; two sons, William M. of New York City and Joseph F. Jr. at home.

Funeral services were held on Thursday at 8:30 a. m. from the A. W. Reilly and Son Funeral Home and at 9 o'clock in St. Mary's Church. Burial was in St. Mary's Cemetery.

Polish Cardinal Denies Plea

New York — (NC) — News dispatches and other reports to the effect that His Eminence Adam Cardinal Sapieha, Archbishop of Cracow, had issued a statement urging all Poles to return to their homeland, not withstanding them that they would not be harmed, have been found to be without foundation.

An investigation conducted from this city elicited an announcement from the Cracow Metropolitan Chancery that Cardinal Sapieha has issued no statement or appeal to Poles abroad in the matter of returning to Poland.

It was reported here that the publication of the false stories in England was received with amazement in Catholic circles, which immediately questioned the authenticity of the dispatches.
