

U. S. Stand at Moscow Buoy's Up Europe's Hope

By O. R. BRUNY
Special Correspondent, N. Y. Times

Washington (NC) — Candid disappointment over the failure to achieve any important agreements at the seven-week sessions of the Big Four Council of Foreign Ministers here was expressed after the conference adjourned by both Secretary of State George C. Marshall and John Foster Dulles, a U. S. adviser.

This disappointment will be shared by all who hoped and expected that the conference after war's end in Europe, the session would at last find a method to govern the fields of military victory and open the road toward a decent peace based on justice for all.

It was Secretary Marshall who in his final statement to the press, termed the conference the first round in the battle for peace, and he pointedly reminded that peace-making is not a matter of merely signing documents but a continuing process.

In the United States on the right hand in the generalizing of spirit? That question raised by the outcome of the conference was answered affirmatively by the press.

Will the United States continue along this road and persevere in the attempt not to offer capitulation? The answer in fact seems to be yes, with some reservations. The United States will continue to support the United Nations and the Atlantic Pact.

Mr. Dulles said that the United States will continue to support the United Nations and the Atlantic Pact.

In a suspension spirit here has been expressed that people who are not in the United States really stand for the United States.

1. Reconstruction of Germany through political processes leading to a new German government which would be independent and free from the influence of the Allies.

2. Increased welfare through increased economic unity.

3. Continued concern of the United States with European conditions which have been involved in wars.

4. Restoration of a free, independent Austria, in substance and not merely in words.

5. The American people, patently excited and deeply upheld here by Secretary Marshall's speech, also reflect the hopes of a great majority of the European people. There are many indications showing European opinion here was more favorable toward U. S. attitude.

6. The American people, patently excited and deeply upheld here by Secretary Marshall's speech, also reflect the hopes of a great majority of the European people.

7. The American people, patently excited and deeply upheld here by Secretary Marshall's speech, also reflect the hopes of a great majority of the European people.

8. The American people, patently excited and deeply upheld here by Secretary Marshall's speech, also reflect the hopes of a great majority of the European people.

9. The American people, patently excited and deeply upheld here by Secretary Marshall's speech, also reflect the hopes of a great majority of the European people.

10. The American people, patently excited and deeply upheld here by Secretary Marshall's speech, also reflect the hopes of a great majority of the European people.

11. The American people, patently excited and deeply upheld here by Secretary Marshall's speech, also reflect the hopes of a great majority of the European people.

12. The American people, patently excited and deeply upheld here by Secretary Marshall's speech, also reflect the hopes of a great majority of the European people.

13. The American people, patently excited and deeply upheld here by Secretary Marshall's speech, also reflect the hopes of a great majority of the European people.

14. The American people, patently excited and deeply upheld here by Secretary Marshall's speech, also reflect the hopes of a great majority of the European people.

Social Award

For outstanding contribution to the social award...

The author of this article, the third in a series, was managing editor of the Communist "Daily Worker" for six years and a member of the Communist Central Committee in this country for six years.

He returned to the Catholic Church in October 1945, and recently has been one of the most important witnesses to give testimony to Congressional committees investigating Communist activities in the United States.

By LOUIS FRANCIS BUDENZ

One of the red hopes for disruption in America has been and is represented by The Protestant magazine. It is a symbol of how a pro-Soviet attitude is interlinked inevitably with the Catholic Church.

That publication, although called Protestant, is not the organ of any official Protestant denomination. It has been right along a violently pro-Soviet and violently anti-Catholic magazine.

For outstanding contribution to the social award...

The author of this article, the third in a series, was managing editor of the Communist "Daily Worker" for six years and a member of the Communist Central Committee in this country for six years.

He returned to the Catholic Church in October 1945, and recently has been one of the most important witnesses to give testimony to Congressional committees investigating Communist activities in the United States.

By LOUIS FRANCIS BUDENZ

One of the red hopes for disruption in America has been and is represented by The Protestant magazine. It is a symbol of how a pro-Soviet attitude is interlinked inevitably with the Catholic Church.

That publication, although called Protestant, is not the organ of any official Protestant denomination. It has been right along a violently pro-Soviet and violently anti-Catholic magazine.

For outstanding contribution to the social award...

The author of this article, the third in a series, was managing editor of the Communist "Daily Worker" for six years and a member of the Communist Central Committee in this country for six years.

He returned to the Catholic Church in October 1945, and recently has been one of the most important witnesses to give testimony to Congressional committees investigating Communist activities in the United States.

By LOUIS FRANCIS BUDENZ

One of the red hopes for disruption in America has been and is represented by The Protestant magazine. It is a symbol of how a pro-Soviet attitude is interlinked inevitably with the Catholic Church.

That publication, although called Protestant, is not the organ of any official Protestant denomination. It has been right along a violently pro-Soviet and violently anti-Catholic magazine.

For outstanding contribution to the social award...

Budenz Charges: 'Protestant' Used In War on Church

The author of this article, the third in a series, was managing editor of the Communist "Daily Worker" for six years and a member of the Communist Central Committee in this country for six years.

He returned to the Catholic Church in October 1945, and recently has been one of the most important witnesses to give testimony to Congressional committees investigating Communist activities in the United States.

By LOUIS FRANCIS BUDENZ

One of the red hopes for disruption in America has been and is represented by The Protestant magazine. It is a symbol of how a pro-Soviet attitude is interlinked inevitably with the Catholic Church.

That publication, although called Protestant, is not the organ of any official Protestant denomination. It has been right along a violently pro-Soviet and violently anti-Catholic magazine.

For outstanding contribution to the social award...

The author of this article, the third in a series, was managing editor of the Communist "Daily Worker" for six years and a member of the Communist Central Committee in this country for six years.

He returned to the Catholic Church in October 1945, and recently has been one of the most important witnesses to give testimony to Congressional committees investigating Communist activities in the United States.

By LOUIS FRANCIS BUDENZ

One of the red hopes for disruption in America has been and is represented by The Protestant magazine. It is a symbol of how a pro-Soviet attitude is interlinked inevitably with the Catholic Church.

That publication, although called Protestant, is not the organ of any official Protestant denomination. It has been right along a violently pro-Soviet and violently anti-Catholic magazine.

For outstanding contribution to the social award...

The author of this article, the third in a series, was managing editor of the Communist "Daily Worker" for six years and a member of the Communist Central Committee in this country for six years.

He returned to the Catholic Church in October 1945, and recently has been one of the most important witnesses to give testimony to Congressional committees investigating Communist activities in the United States.

By LOUIS FRANCIS BUDENZ

One of the red hopes for disruption in America has been and is represented by The Protestant magazine. It is a symbol of how a pro-Soviet attitude is interlinked inevitably with the Catholic Church.

That publication, although called Protestant, is not the organ of any official Protestant denomination. It has been right along a violently pro-Soviet and violently anti-Catholic magazine.

For outstanding contribution to the social award...

BABE RUTH AS SPECTATOR

An interested spectator at the Miami Beach-Havana Cuban game in Flamingo Park was Babe Ruth. He is seen here with Monaghan and other spectators. Babe Ruth was seen in his first baseball game since his recent operation. Before the game he was presented with a scroll in appreciation of his long and honorable service to the sport of baseball. (NC Photos)

Cardinal Calls Babe Ruth Champion of Fair Play

New York (NC) — Babe Ruth turned today and prayed for the success of the fair play and prayer campaign of fair play and prayer. In the spirit of our sports...

Before 50,000 persons assembled in the huge sports arena, the Cardinal prayed for the success of the fair play and prayer campaign.

MOTHER WILL BE DELIGHTED WITH A LOVELY RELIGIOUS Gift from Trant's

- CAMEO PENDANT of the blessed Mother, set in gold with a fine gold chain $15.00
- MADONNA STATUES in a large variety of sizes. A splendid gift for Mother $2.50 to $5.00
- ROSARIES We have an exceptionally large variety with crystal, sterling and colored stones. An ideal Mothers Day Gift

We Have An Ever-So-Grand Selection of Gifts For First Communion and Confirmation

- COMMUNION SETS. Lovely white packets for girls and black packets for boys each containing a prayer book, Rosary and St. Raphael front $2.25
- FIRST COMMUNION STATUES of white marble $2
- SISTER DOLLS. Handsomely dressed with the complete habit and Crucifix. Reduced $2.50
- WHITE TIES for boys First Communion
- ROSARIES in a variety of cases of Sterling, Gold plate or Silver plate from $3.25
- RELIGIOUS RINGS for boys and girls. Spinal and Miraculous
- CROSS AND CHAIN SETS. Beautifully filled crosses on a dainty chain
- PRAYER BOOKS in a grand selection of colors and bindings

Suggestions for the Fifth Annual Observance of Religious Book Week - May 4th-11th

- KEEPER OF THE KEYS by McDermott $2.50
- OUR LADY OF FATIMA by Barthes & DeFonseca, S.J. $2.50
- THE PSALMS by Knox $2.00
- THIS TREMBLEDOUS LOVE by Boylan $3.00
- WHERE IS MY FAITH by Britt $3.00
- MARY AND THE SPINNERS by Hollister $2.50
- PEARL HARBOR by George Morgenstern $3.00
- QUEST OF BEN HERED by DeHeredia $3.00
- THIS IS MY STORY by Budenz $3.00
- AUSTRIAN REQUIEM by Kurt Vonschusenburger $3.50
- A CATHOLIC QUIZ BOOK by Kenny and Keene $2.00
- WARTIME CORRESPONDENCE Letters between President Roosevelt and Pope Pius 12th $2.50
- IN THIS TRY DAY by Michael McLaverty $2.50

THE CATHOLIC SUPPLY STORE
TRANT'S Inc.
110 Glen Ave. N. - 5 Franklin St.
Free Parking Not Door

B. Forman Co.
Beauty Salon
Phone Main 3300

SHORT and Snappy!

Your hair cut short for summertime comfort and convenience, with curls that snap back into place because you have a

Helene Curtis Cold Wave Permanent

Forman cold waves are comfortable waves... comfortable to get and comfortable to have. No heat, no machines, no weight. Just relax and let Forman's famous Duchess cold waving lotion beauty-bathe each curl into a soft, long-lasting permanent.

10.00

ASK FOR FORMAN'S INSTANT HAIR DRY METHOD.

WATER

the best solution for hard water...

WATER

the best solution for hard water...

WATER

the best solution for hard water...

WILLOCK Bros.

FOR GENTLEMEN

WILLOCK Bros.

FOR GENTLEMEN

WILLOCK Bros.

FOR GENTLEMEN

QUEBEC YOUTH TO BOYCOTT PRAGUE MEET

Montreal (NC) — Eighteen youth organizations in the Province of Quebec have joined in refusing to send delegates to the "World Festival of Youth," scheduled for Prague this summer.

They assert the session will be dominated by communists, with a long range objective of seeking representation in the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization as a consultative member speaking for world youth.

The Canadian group charged that the Youth Festival is an outgrowth of the World Youth Conference held in London in 1945 which resulted in the organization of the World Federation of Democratic Youth. When an executive committee of 13 members was chosen, the Canadians say, eight communists were named.

Although it was not represented at the London conference, the Province of Quebec had three unopposed seats. They claimed that 260 of 445 delegates were communists and that half of the delegates from the United States were communists.

In reporting on the makeup of the forthcoming session, the Quebec signatories said that the Christian youth organizations of France, Belgium and Switzerland have obtained from participation and that the festival has been repudiated by 76 youth organizations in England, Poland, Yugoslavia, Ukrainian and other youth organizations operating behind the iron curtain have accepted invitations if it is said.

MOTHER WILL BE DELIGHTED WITH A LOVELY RELIGIOUS Gift from Trant's

MOTHER'S DAY

May 11th

MOTHER'S DAY

VEILS

$1.75 up

TRANT'S Inc.

110 Glen Ave. N. - 5 Franklin St.
Free Parking Not Door