Oldest Member Of Parish Dies

Funeral Mass for Mrs. Mary Elsie Englerth 83, was offered by the Rev. Dr. J. Emil Goffal in SS Peter and Paul's church on Tuesday, April 23.

Mrs. Englerth of 129 Saxton St died on April 23, 1947, her birthday.

In the Sanctuary was the Rev. William Devereaux, pastor of St. Columba's Church, Calcutta and St. Patrick's, Mumford of which churches, Mrs. Englerth's brother, the late Rev. George J. Englerth was founder and pastor for 40 years.

Oldest member of SS Peter and Paul's church she was a member of the Women's Sodality. She was also a member of the Order of Martha and spent much time in making and embroidering vestments for missionary priests.

Bearers were all nephews and final absolution at Holy Sepulchre Cemetery was imparted by the Rev. Bartholomew L. Quirk. Mrs. Englerth leaves a son, George A. Englerth, a sister Mrs. Eva La Cava of Los Angeles, whose son Gregory La Cava is the well-known film director. She leaves several other nieces and nephews.

NEW LEADER TAKES OVER

The "President's Plaque" emblematic of leadership in the Rochester Police Holy Name Society is transferred from Officer Robert L. Consumption (right) to newly elected President William Gullud as the Rev. John S. Randall, spiritual director looks on following annual Communion breakfast, Sunday.

Police Holy Name Name Gullud

Patrolman William Gullud of the Exchange street station was elected president of the Police Bureau's Holy Name Society at the annual communion breakfast which brought 200 members together Sunday at Hotel Seneca.

Mass was celebrated at St. Joseph's Church by His Excellency Bishop Kearney. Cyril Kasiner and Clayton Paulker acted as celebrants.

Principal speaker was Harry Wright, Aquinas athletic coach. Other speakers were Rev. Thomas E. Carey, G.P., national Holy Name organizer from New York headquarters; Rev. Patrick J. Flynn, diocesan Holy Name director; City Manager Louis B. Cartwright; Mayor Samuel B. Dickert; Public Safety Commissioner Thomas C. Woods; Sheriff Al Skidner and Carl S. Halauer.

Rev. John S. Randall, spiritual director of the police group, was toastmaster.

Patrolman Gullud succeeds Robert Consumption. Clayton Paulker succeeded Theodore Nelson as secretary and Father Randall was re-elected treasurer.

Dance Slated

QUIZ

Solve the riddle about two trouser suits

Where are they?
Very definitely, at Bond's. Before the war, Bond was the world's largest maker and seller of Two Trouser Suits. You'll find us right back in the driver's seat.

Why keep it secret?
Frankly, we didn't dare talk. The demand for Two Trouser Suits is terrific. But the 210 tailoring operations we put into your suit couldn't be rushed. We'd rather show you one good suit than a dozen not so good.

How about quality?
Worsted are what you want. And worsteds are what you'll get. Handsomely styled, firm long-wearing worsteds from America's topflight weavers. They're still rare as crown jewels—but Bond has 'em!

What about size?
Plenty! We're now making Two Trouser Suits in 41 different sizes and models. So if you're hard to fit, make Bond's your first stop. If your correct size should be temporarily missing, our measurements will get it for you in a hurry.

How much?
Bond prices stand firm as Old Hickory—$4.75 to $7.75. Your extra trousers are down at each bottom, too—99¢ to $2.99. Put 'em together for a monthly payment. Two Trouser Suits don't get any better, good company is long time.
