UN Hears Plea For Christians In Palestine

New York — (NC) — A future United Nations investigating committee on the Palestine problem may give a hearing to the Catholic Near East Welfare Association, the first voice raised for Christians in Palestine before the UN.

This was followed in action of a UN screening committee which passed on requests of various groups to present their views before the UN General Assembly's Political and Security Committee, soon to rule on the creation of a Palestine inquiry group.

The screening committee turned down the association's request to be heard now, with the understanding that organizations now turned down may be heard by the special committee of inquiry when it is established.

Refused an immediate hearing on the same grounds as the Catholic association were the Palestine Communist Party Central Committee and several Jewish, Arab and other groups.

The Catholic plea for hearing specified Christendom's interest in the future of the Holy Land, with particular reference to freedom of worship of the country's 130,000 Christians, and accessibility to such holy places as the Holy Sepulchre.

Authorized by its president, His Eminence Francis Cardinal Spellman, Archbishop of New York, the association filed its plea shortly before the deadline for applications to the screening committee.

The plea pointed out that neither the Jewish Agency nor the Arab Committee, even though the latter had several Christian members, gave any consideration to the rights of Christians in the country.

"But before we can conscientiously consent to any settlement or modus vivendi, we demand adequate factual, implemented guarantees to the effect:

"(1) That all our sanctuaries will be respected and continuously and unconditionally accessible, and

"(2) That the Christian minority will actually enjoy not merely that vague frequently distorted and facetiously neutralized right of freedom of religion, but also freedom of religious assemblage; freedom of religious organization in conducting schools, hospitals, orphanages and other institutions of welfare and mercy and freedom from civil, social and economic discrimination."
