Scapular Group Seeks Members

Five hundred Scapulars are being sought during the month of May by the Carmen Guild, local headquarters for the Scapular Association whose national headquarters is New York City.

Goal for the year of 1947, central year of the Buffalo Diocese, is 1000 members. The Guild has many members in Rochester and surrounding areas according to Mary G. Miller, secretary.

The Apostolate is presently making one million scapulars to send to war-torn Europe and other foreign countries. During the war, members paid for 150,000 scapulars for the men in service.

The address of the Carmen Guild is 20 Southampton, Buffalo, N. Y. or Box 12, Buffalo, N. Y.

Corpus Christi Women's Group To Hear Noted Priest-Author

Rev. Gerald T. Brennan, popular author of children's books, will be guest speaker at the annual mothers and daughters supper Wednesday, June 4 at 6:30 p. m. in Corpus Christi Church hall.

Tickets priced at $1.00 will be on sale at the door Sunday. Children under 12 will be admitted for 75c. All women of the parish are invited to this supper which is being sponsored by the Rosary Society.

New members of the society who signed up in the recent membership drive will be welcomed at the supper. A special supper committee meeting is scheduled Monday night in the church hall after services.

Rosarians are reminded that Thursday, June 5 is the Feast of Corpus Christi and exposition will be held all day. Members are requested to be present some time between 11:30 a. m. and 3:30 p. m. There will be Benediction at 3:30 in addition to the evening services which will conclude the day's devotion. Prayers during this time will be offered for the conversion of Russia and the check of Communism.

Rev. John D. Malley, spiritual director, has urged the members to begin the devotion of the five days Saturdays in honor of the Immaculate Heart of Mary; a devotion that is becoming widespread and which was requested in the apparitions at Fatima, Portugal in 1917.

Young Priest To Sing First High Mass on June 1st

Auburn—Rev. Joseph A. O'Connor, a former student of St. Bernard's Seminary, will sing his first Solemn Mass Sunday, June 1, at 10:30 a. m. at St. Aloysius Church here.

Father O'Connor, son of Mrs. Mary O'Connor of 52 Barber St., will be ordained Saturday, May 31, by the Most Rev. William A. Griffin, bishop of Trenton, N. J., at St. Mary's Cathedral, Trenton. Assisting the young priest at his Mass will be the Rev. John B. Crowley, pastor of St. Aloysius Church, as assistant priest; Rev. Lawrence E. Ryan, member of the Chaplain Corps, deacon; and Rev. Austin B. Hanna, former chaplain, as subdeacon.

Rev. John P. O'Malley, also an ex-chaplain, will preach the sermon. Father O'Connor attended St. Aloysius School, and Holy Family High School, Auburn. After graduation from Manhattan College, New York, he entered St. Bernard's Seminary, Rochester, and completed his theological studies at Our Lady of Angels Seminary, Niagara University.

George Murr Rites
Funeral services for George M. Murr, former restaurant proprietor, grain merchant and building contractor, who died May 11, at his home, 1249 Portland Avenue, were held Wednesday, May 14, from the Walter Boyce Funeral Home, and at St. Andrew's Church.

Rev. George W. East celebrated Solemn Requiem Mass, assisted by Rev. John W. LaVague as deacon and Rev. Raymond Heisel as subdeacon.

Interment was in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery, with final blessing by Father Heisel.
