Father Crimmins Heard at Rite Closing Novena

Elmira — Annual closing of the May novena took place in St. Ignatius Loyola Church at the Novena of Our Lady of the Miraculous Medal Monday morning.

Services opened with a procession of small children led by Richard O'Brien as cross-bearer. Dressed in white and carrying bouquets of spring blossoms the children were led by Mary Frances McVilla and Margaret Pollicino into the sanctuary where they laid their bouquets at the foot of the statue of the Blessed Virgin. Gretchen Braunschweig attended by Ann Hammond and Joanne Hoffman placed a crown of flowers on the head of the statue.

Throughout the service the children of the parish sang hymns honoring the Blessed Virgin.

Following the ceremony 38 eighth grade girls and boys were received into the sodality of Our Lady. The girls were attired in pastel dresses and wore shoulder veils of blue net. They were enrobed by Rev. William Tobin and presented with a medal and certificate of membership.

The sermon was given by Rev. John Francis Crimmins of Craig Colony, Somers. He urged the novitiate to be faithful subjects to Mary, their queen. Loyalty in thought, word and deed were stressed that the benefits derived from this impressive ceremony would last throughout life.

Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament was administered by the pastor, Rev. Ignatius X. Camerano, on closing the services.

Anti-Red Maritime Union Is Formed

Montreal — (N.Y.) — J. A. "Pat" Sullivan, who aroused considerable attention in labor circles by resigning as president of the Canadian Seamen's Union because of what he termed communist domination and who broke with the communists, has formed a new union of Canadian sailors, which will be anti-Communist in its composition.

After resigning from the CSU, Mr. Sullivan retired to his farm in the Gatineau Valley north of Ottawa. The publicity attending his resignation brought Mr. Sullivan a flood of requests from Canadian sailors to form a new union which would be anti-Communist.
