The National Council of American Seriet Friendskip. Ever since the Communist party was established, it has kept one front or another in operation to prompte sympathy for the Soviet Government. Usually the principal sponser has been Coeffic Lament. No front ever amounted to much until Bussia became an ally during the war. Then, the National Council of American Soviet Priendahip suddenly blossomed with conservative, respectable names like those of Sens. Arthur Capper and Leverett Saltonutall. and Judge Learned Hand, Since the war, the council has driven away the conservatives, as well as many New Dealers such as ex-Secretary of the Interior fiarold lekes, by its constant attacks on the United States' foreign policy, and especially the Baruch plan for international atomie control.

2-infiltration in the CIO Paradoxionly, the man who brought the Communist party into the CIO and the man who shelters it there are both bitterly anti-Communist. Although John L. Lewis has always kept the door closed to Communists in his own union - the United Mine Werkers of America neverticless, when he was starting the CIO he put Communists by the score on the organization's payroll.

Lewis needed skilled organizers, and he didn't care where he found them. And when David Dubinsky, the nimble witted president of the International Ladies Carment Work. ers Union, warned him that he was banking trouble, the massive Lewis, who towers over Dubinsky, haughtly rumbled: "Dave who gets the bird - the hunter or the dog?"

Years passed, Lewis's un-yielding isolationism and his epposition to Franklin D. Roosevelt caused the mine lander and the CIO to part company. Adolf Hitler's double-cross of Joseph Stalin changed the Communists from isolationists and partisans of Lawis to warmongers and avowed enemies of their former favorite labor leader.

PAUL ROBESON

Dubinsky met Levis in Wash

"John," he said, who gots the bird the number or the dog "

Lewis confessed that Dubin sky had been right, and he, wrong. Once the Communists had been let into the CIO, it was almost impossible to get them out.

Under Philip Murray, numerous attempts to quat the Communists have been made. Not all the anti-Communists in the CIO are right wingers. Some, like Walter Reuther, the youthful redhead who runs the United Auto Workers, are oldtime Socialists. In spite of the newspaper headlines, they have failed to shake the Communist grip appreciably A devout Catholic, who takes guidance from priests sympathetic to labor, Murray has consistently encouraged the anti-Communistic bloc. But just as consistently, the CIO president has inconsistently kept them from taking drastic action.

IN THE HIERARCHY: Murray's right-hand man is still Lee Pressman, general counsel of the CIO, who follows the Communist party line. The editor of the official CIO weekly. The CIO'News, is still Len De Caux. An indication of whose orders De Caux follows and where his sympathies lie can be gained from the way he treats atories about Communists in the CIO. In The CIO News, the CIO resolution of last November decrying Communist-party activities was headlined: "CIO Reaffirms Americanism." In the CIO publication, Steel Labor, which is run by Murray, the headline was: "CIO Warns Communists.

Don't Meddle in Unions." The consequence is that Communists and fellow travelers now control CIO unions totaling 23 per cent of the organization's membership of

1.600J.000J Murray's solicitude for the Communists springs from the fact that every serious attempt to oust them has materially weakened the CIO. When fellow traveler Morris Muster finally broke with the Communists and resigned as president of the United Furniture Werkers of America at the same time blasting the secret Communist-party rule, the union nearly disintegrated. Several locals quit and joined the AFL

Similarly, the attempts of the Association of Catholic Trade Unionists to shake the Communist control of the United Electrical, Radio, and Machine Workers and the Mine, Mill, and Smelter Workers have succeeded in weakening not the Communists but the unions themselves.

In all, there are now fifteen CIO unions controlled by the Communists or fellow travel-

And both have long records as fellow travelers. During the early '30s, they were identified with the Trade Union Unity League, the Communist party's new-defunct dual tradeunion movement During the Hitler-Stalin pact, Emspak was listed on the letterhead of the American Peace Mobilization, the Communist Yanks-Aren't-Coming outlit, as national council member.
