Kin Join Tribute To Redemptorist On Silver Jubilee

Hundreds of friends and parishioners paid tribute to the Rev. Raymond G. Schiltzer, C.S.R., pastor of St. Gregory's Church, North East, Pa., and a native Rochesterian, Sunday, June 22, on the 25th anniversary of his ordination.

Relatives of the Rochester-born priest journeyed to Northeast to join in the Silver Jubilee celebrations of Father Schiltzer.

A purse made up by parishioners was presented to the jubilarian as a testimonial of esteem and cooperation to be used for parish debt and improvements. The dinner and reception were arranged by a special Silver Jubilee Committee of members of the parish.

St. Joseph's Graduate Born September 20, 1890, the son of the late Joseph H. and Mrs. Louise M. Schiltzer, Father Schiltzer attended St. Joseph's grammar school in Rochester. The family home was and is located at 8 Grant Street.

Preparatory courses for the priesthood were made at St. Mary's College, Northeast, from which he graduated in 1917. He was pursuing his studies at St. Mary's College, North East, from which he graduated in 1923. He received his Bachelor of Arts degree in August of that same year. Following completion of philosophy and theology at Mount St. Alphonsus in Esopus, N. Y., he was ordained June 18, 1922.

He later matriculated successfully at the University of Angelicum in Rome, the Catholic University of America in Washington, D. C., and at Fordham University in New York, and was awarded a Master of Arts.

Father Schiltzer was appointed to teach at St. Mary's, North East, in February, 1923, and subsequently held the chair of Latin in the college department for ten years. He became acting pastor of St. Gregory's in 1933.

The priest is a member of a family of nine. A brother, Rev. Albert Schiltzer, C.S.C., is a member of the faculty of Notre Dame University. Two other brothers, Walter C. and Edward J. live in Rochester.

He also has five sisters here: Misses Dorothy M. Gertrude L. Ulida, Agnes J. Schiltzer and Mrs. William H. Glavin.

Lay Brother Home, Promotes Devotion

Home from Geneva, Ill., after 1 year as a lay brother with the Missionaries of the Sacred Heart, Brother Ralph Carpenter, M. S. C., is spreading devotion to Our Lady of the Sacred Heart.

Brother Carpenter is a former member of St. Andrew's parish. The devotion of Our Lady of the Sacred Heart, Brother Carpenter explains, is symbolized in a holy card distributed by the order. The illustration is of the Blessed Virgin holding in her hand the Sacred Heart of her son, while the child Jesus is shown pointing with one hand to His Heart and with other to His Mother.

Copies of the picture may be obtained by writing to Our Lady of the Sacred Heart, 719 Batavia Ave., Geneva, Ill.

Two Services Set For St. Gerard Novena, Monday

Two Novena services in honor of St. Gerard Majella will be held at St. Gerard's Church, 108 Franklin St. on June 30.

The first service will be held at 7:30 p. m. and the second at 8:30 p. m. The Rev. George Hines, C.S.R., in charge, will open the second Monday Novena in honor of the Saint at St. Joseph's Church, 108 Franklin St. on June 30.

Services will be held at the customary 3 p. m. and beginning Monday, June 30 a second service will be held at 7:30 p. m.

First of the Novena of Monday, closed on Monday, June 23 with the Rev. Thomas Roche, C.S.R., of Pittsburgh conducting the services. The devotions were concluded with imparting of the Papal Blessing, followed by Solemn Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament.

"The Redemptorist Fathers take this opportunity of thanking those who have made these first nine Mondays so successful," the Rev. Charles Gutterberger, C.S.R., rector said this week. "They ask all to tell their friends about the novena and the new service added for their convenience. All are invited to attend these devotions honoring St. Gerard and at the same time to obtain his powerful intercession."

A new booklet of prayers, including the Blessing for Motherhood, and the Blessing for Sick Children is being prepared.

"St. Gerard Majella was a Redemptorist lay brother who, by his life of heroic virtue, has obtained miraculous powers from God. For the past 200 years, he has proved his power by his intercession on behalf of mothers and children, the sick and all those who suffer any spiritual or material need."

St. Gerard is everybody's saint because he is the Family Saint. He is the Patron of mothers, both actual and expectant, the Holy Protector of Family Peace and Unity, and as such he is ready to help in any way to create a more Christian family. By spreading this devotion, you can help mothers and children; and help reestablish the Christian Family, and restore it to the place of honor intended for it by our Blessed Lord."

Rochester Girl Wins Degree at Laval U.

Miss Florence M. Hetzler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman G. Hetzler of Lake View Park and Cape Vincent has been awarded the degree of master of arts in philosophy with the honor magna cum laude by Laval University, Quebec, Canada.

Miss Hetzler studied philosophy at the French University for one summer and one scholastic year. A graduate of Nazareth Academy where she was president and salutatorian of the class of 1943, and a former student at Nazareth College, she received her baccalaureate also magna cum laude from Marymount College at Tarrytown-on-the-Hudson.

At Marymount she was awarded the Cardinal Spellman award by the cardinal and was highest of the B.A. students.

Miss Hetzler was elected president of the "American Students of Laval University," becoming the first woman ever to hold this office in any of the organizations of the university. The American group was greeted by Cardinal Spellman at the University Club during his visit to Quebec, and was also feted by various groups including the American Consulate.

852 Catholic High Diplomas Awarded by Seven Schools

Diplomas and prizes were awarded to 852 young people at commencements in seven Rochester Catholic high schools and commerce schools.

Attired in maroon academic caps and gowns, 24 Catholic young men received their diplomas from the Bishop's High School at the 44th Annual Commencement exercises held for the first time in Eastman Theater Sunday night.

Capshots of the Eastman were taken to witness the conferring of diplomas and presentation of awards to the class presented for graduation by the Rev. William J. Duggan, C.S.R., principal.

The graduates contribution to the American way of life will be far superior to any other school of its kind, because ideals taught since upon a sense of conscientious responsibility. Bishop Kearney said.

Aquinas Institute's motto, "Credo Quiaquid Dixit Dei Filius," "I believe what the Son of God has said," was held at their guide in future life. And the Son of God has said, "I am the Way and the Light."

Valedictorian was Eugene Robert Myler. Two piano duets were given by Anthony Lantano and Frank Montello, two of the class. Thomas E. Duggan sang "Just for Today." The Bishop's High School band, "Ave Maria," by Massena, and "Transquility," by Miller and were directed by Raymond J. Massena, music director of the school.
