Father Russell will succeed the Most Rev. Edward E. Lynch, who has been appointed General of the order with headquarters in Rome, Italy. Father Lynch has been in Auburn on several occasions. He is in Europe at the present time but is expected to visit Auburn in July.

Father Russell has been in the order for 28 years. He was ordained in Rome in 1925. He studied in Ireland at the National University and at St. Albert's in Rome. He also took pro-graduate work at Fordham University and for 12 years was principal of Mount Carmel High School at Los Angeles.

During the first year at the Carmelite home in South Street, formerly the Case mansion, many improvements have been made. Father Russell also stated that by September, a class of 25 novitiates were expected to be at the home here.

Capacity Audiences Hail 'Spring Revue

One of the brightest children's and young people's musical shows presented in Rochester was acclaimed by the hundreds of persons who crowded St. Stanislaus auditorium Sunday and Monday, June 8 and 9.

"Spring Revue" featured a fast moving variety series of short entertaining and interesting dance routines, song and novelty numbers.

Five-year-old Linda Lee Jones highlighted the program. The specialty acts of the curly little blonde were suited to her type. In a Baltic challenge dance Judy Konesny, Mary Antrobus and Tommy McMahon's comedy trio appeared together with Richard Keeler, Danny Kolasa and Joseph Majkusak.

The show was produced and directed by Val Mates and Miss Wilma Widman, director and assistant director of the Val Mates school of Dance of Rochester.

John Pietramkiewicz, master of ceremonies, Victor Bartulis, featured pianist, and Bernard Manling, piano accompanist, rendered excellent support to the show.

Rochester Gas and Electric has won the second prize award for window display in a national Better Advertising Contest conducted by the Public Utilities Advertising Association. More than 50 companies competed and the awards were announced at the annual convention in Detroit.

The Rochester prize-winning windows were designed and created by the R. G. & E. display staff headed by Elmer Villnow and including Charles W. Scholl and Archie M. McLeod. The same trio won a Westinghouse award for the best sun-lamp window a few months ago.

A Talk With Our Lady

O, Mary, dear, I love you.
Please help me to be good.
Help me to love everyone,
And do always as I should.

Sometimes I may be happy,
Sometimes I may be sad;
But, dear Mother, with your help
I never will be bad.

There are many bad temptations
In this awful world of sin,
But I'll always pray, dear Mother,
May the devil never win.

When Jesus was a little boy,
He always did just right,
O help me, Blessed Mother,
To keep Him in my sight.
