50 Nazareth Girls Fly Over City as Science Project

A flight over the city by Fifty Nazareth Academy students on Tuesday concluded their freshmen year activities.

Accompanied by three Sisters of St. Joseph and the school nurse, the girls mostly in their early 'teens, made their sight seeing trip over the city from the Municipal Airport in a pair of twin-engined Beechcrafts operated by Page Airways.

The flying was part of a program of on-the-spot science studies by the academy's George Washington Carver Science Club.

"It was a practical project resulting from our studies of aviation," explained Sister Christine Francis, moderator of the club.

Sister Anna Cecelia, Sister Marie Gratia and Miss Mary Walsh, school nurse were with the students.

The group also visited the U. S. Weather Bureau where Official in-charge John M. Williams described the instruments, and entered hangars to study airplane structure.

Fourth of July Dance Set By Immaculate Youth Group

A special 4th of July holiday event at Immaculate Conception auditorium has been announced by the Youth Committee. The dance will be held Thursday evening, July 3.

Miss Rita Wilson of Nazareth and Frank Sibilio of Aquinas Institute are co-chairmen of the committee in charge. Special acts have been arranged.

Joe Nolan's orchestra featuring Margie Porzelt and Don O'Connor on vocals, will play for dancing from 9 to 12. Special pictures of the dancers will be taken by the Paramount Leica Studios.

The regular Friday night dance for that week will not be held on account of the national holiday. The Friday night center will be open, however, through out the summer months. Any teen-ager of the city is welcome to these dances which are chaperoned by young married couples. Price of admission is 60 cents.

The committees include Checking, Alice Smith, Claire Kester, Antoinette Salvi, Shirley Jones, Louise Woodard, Arlene Feeley, Ann Theresa Grace, Joan Resch, Rita Wilson and Gloria Colluzzi.

Tickets, Barbara Burns, Dorothy Collins, Marie Ronco, Dorothy Peartree. Coke bar, Nancy Gordon, Barbara Collins, Diana Stangorr, Antoinette DelGaizo, Jean Thomas, Marian Weiss.

Chaperons John E. Drew, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Amick, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Corey, Richard Rebman, John F. Wood, Shirley Wahl, Frank Sibilio, Mrs. Howard Palmer, Mrs. Mark Bradley and Mrs. John Robinson.
