Fr. Russell
Named Head
Of Carmelites

Auburn — The Very Rev. Patrick William Russell, O. Carm., was appointed Provincial of New York Province of St. Elmo's.

selection held by the Superior of the Carmelite Order at their headquarters at St. Albert's Seminary, Middletown, N. Y.

Father Russell is superior of the Carmelite House in South Street. He will remain in his present capacity until a successor is named. The religious order has been located in Auburn for about a year.

Father Russell will succeed the Most Rev. Edward K. Lynch, who has been appointed General of the order with headquarters in Rome, Italy. Father Lynch has been in Auburn on several occasions. He is in Europe at the present time but is expected to visit Auburn in July.

Father Russell has been in the order for 24 years. He was ordained in 1925. He studied in Ireland at the National University and at St. Albert's in Rome. He also took postgraduate work at Fordham University and for 12 years was principal of Mount Carmel High School at Lowville.

During the first year at the Carmelite House in South Street, formerly the Case mansion, many improvements have been made. Father Russell also stated that by September, a class of 25 novices were expected to be at the home here.

St. Peter and Paul's

A class of 14 boys and girls were graduated from St. Peter and Paul's Parochial School, Elmira, Friday, June 20.

Rev. Joseph G. Merlot delivered the commencement address congratulating the young people and asking God to bless them.

Rev. William J. Naughton, pastor, declared that "we are quite proud of the Graduates Exercises, proud of the record of the class, proud of the number."

Most of these graduates, stated the pastor, would see no more formal Catholic training. "Our sincere hope and prayer at this time is that their graduation will mean the beginning of a normal and life-long putting into effect the Catholic lessons they have received."

Christian Doctrine prize donated by the Knights of Columbus was awarded to James McDonnell and Barbara MacDonald at the graduation. Donald Oakley and Betty Long both merited Scholarship Prizes.

The bride, a graduate of St. Patrick's School and Corning Free Academy, has been employed in the personnel office of Corning Glass Works. Mr. Kreba, a veteran of four years service in the Army, is a graduate of St. Mary's School and the Academy. He is an employee of the Standard Dry Cleaning Company.

Miss Ellen St. Ball, daughter of Herman Ball of Lindley, and John C. Benz, son of William Benz, 368 Commerce St., were united in marriage Saturday, June 14, in St. Patrick's Church by the Rev. E. A. Ravlinson, pastor.

Maid of honor for the bride was Miss Betty Boat of Corning and Miss Arlene Bliss, also of this city, was bridesmaid. John Berger of Corning was best man and John Daybon of East Corning, following.

Following the ceremony a reception for 150 guests was held at the home of the bridegroom's father. Later Mr. and Mrs. Benz left for Niagara Falls and Canada.

The bride, who attended Lawrenceville, Pa., and Lindley schools, has been employed in the Machine Accounting Department of Corning Glass Works. Mr. Benz, who served four years in the armed forces, attended St. Patrick's School and Corning Free Academy. He is employed in the machine shop of the Glass Works.
