Pilgrimage Will Mark 'Evangeline' Centennial

Lafayette, La. (NC) — A pilgrimage from the "Evangeline" country of Louisiana to Nova Scotia, will be held from August 10 to 20. In preparation for the National Catholic Rural Life Conference meeting at the campus of Southwestern Louisiana Institute in November.

The pilgrimage will commemorate the 100th anniversary of the publication of Longfellow's "Evangeline," the poem that told of the separation of Gabriel and Evangeline when the British expelled the French Acadians in 1758.

Thomas J. Arceneaux, dean of the College of Southwestern Louisiana Institute, a descendant of Louis Arceneaux, the Gabriel of Longfellow's poem, is chairman of the pilgrimage committee.

Descendants of Louis Arceneaux declare that the tale of the story of Gabriel and Evangeline were as dramatic as the fictional version in the poem. Evangeline, in real life Emmeline LaRochelle, and Louis were two of the Acadians who refused to take the oath of allegiance to England. When they were exiled, they were put on different ships; Emmeline's ship landed in Maryland and Louis' in Georgia.

Louis reached Louisiana and, finding a spot like Nova Scotia, settled there and gave it the same name. After three years he gave Emmeline up as lost and married. When Emmeline finally reached the bayou country and learned that Louis had married, her mind snapped. She is buried in the churchyard of St. Martin's Church, St. Martinville on the Bayou Teche.

Danzig Church Rebuilding Advances, Priest Reveals

Muskegon (NC) — A German priest, who was able to remain in the city of Danzig after it was taken first by the Red Army and then by Polish troops, states in a letter received here that, despite all hardships, he does not regret having stayed in his post.

The priest writes that he has lost all his possessions as a result of the fighting that preceded the capture of the Danzig harbor. He has no income and lives in miserable quarters. He states, however, that much of the damage caused to Danzig churches through acts of war has already been repaired. The rebuilding of Christ the King church is almost completed and, he adds, the church is almost completed and, he adds, the church is almost completed and, he adds, the church is almost completed.

REDS ARREST FULDA BISHOP

Frankfurt (NC) — Bishop Joseph Dietz of Fulda, his secretary, the Rev. Herbert Abel, and their chauffeur were arrested by Red Army guards upon entering the Russian zone for a trip authorized by the Soviet Military Administration, to visit sectors of the Fulda diocese located in the Soviet zone.

The bishop and his companions were kept incommunicado for 24 hours and submitted to grueling interrogations. Their baggage was searched and they received no food while under arrest.

Upon arriving in Weimar, the bishop informed the Russian general there of the incident. The general seemed embarrassed and assured the bishop that he would be molested no further. He also pleaded with the bishop not to reveal the incident and the bishop readily agreed to forget. However, the story has now leaked out belatedly.

Bishop Dietz' trip included the cities of Erfurt and Heiligenstadt. This was the first time he had been granted permission to enter the Soviet zone after his auxiliary had obtained authorization for a similar trip a few weeks before.

Education Need In Korea Cited

By REV. PATRICK O'CONNOR, Seoul (NC) — The greatest weakness evident in the Catholic position in Korea today is the extreme scarcity of well-educated laymen and laywomen.

I met only one Korean graduate of a Catholic college, John Chang. He went to the United States under Maryknoll auspices and was graduated from Manhattan College in 1935. He is now principal of the Catholic High School for Boys in Seoul. His brother, Louis, heads the city educational department of Seoul. There are other graduates of Catholic colleges—some, for instance, of the Catholic University of Tokyo—in Korea, but they are not easy to find.
