Redecorating Nears End At St. Boniface

Work of impreving and redecorating the interior of St. Boniface Church on Gregory Street is nearing completion at the hands of Gerace and Forde of

The Gothic architecture of the church, in which every line reaches unward, has been made more conspicuous by removal of some of the overly ornate work. Improvements have been made to the Gothic altar constructed by Anthony Halstrick. Organ Rebuilt

The organ is also being rebuilt by the Tellers Company of Eric. Pa. Many new pipes will be added and all the pipes will be revoked. The latest and most improved action and modern console will be included in the work. For Precious which is scheduled to be completed by next fail.

provements, the tower clock is being changed to automatic on and the funeral toller to be concal representative of the Verdin day June 29 Company, is directing the tower operations.

Another improvement will be in Munich, Germany fifty years in August.
