Delegate Status Given for Holy Name Session

Four important points relative to the 4th National Holy Name Convention to be held in Boston this October are stressed by the National Headquarters in a release this week to Catholic newspapers of the country.

Eligibility of Holy Name members attending is cited for the benefit of each parish society, according to Lewis A. Schurr, president of Rochester Diocesan Holy Name Union.

The points of information as released by the Very Rev. Harry C. Graham, O.P., national director of the society are these:

1. Every parish is allowed as many delegates as it wishes.

2. Every parish should have at least one official delegate representing the local unit at the convention, but all Holy Name members are invited and, in fact, strongly urged to attend.

3. Complete hotel and housing accommodations have been arranged to take care of those coming from out of town during the span of the convention which will run from October 1 to 5.

4. Air, bus and railroad companies have been notified of the meeting and have extended assurances of their cooperation. In the case of rail transportation, one and one-half fare will be charged for the complete two-way round trip from any part of the country, and special coaches will be provided for Holy Name groups.

Reservations for the convention may be made by writing directly to Rev. Daniel J. Donovan, 9 Whitmore St., Boston 11, Mass.

Father Dailey In Yugoslavia

capital and that meant boning up on the French tongue and standing unusually stiff for interminable periods at teas and receptions.

"Added to this was the job of running and feeding a house which, under Communist bureaucracy and ill-will is a full time task."

God and Tito

As for the future, Father Dailey reports that "here we will remain until Almighty God, the Pope or Tito wake up their mind about a change. Our future rests in the hands of the third person of that trinity' — the other two do not count for much around here these days. But when we do hear that our mission is finished, the vault of Heaven will resound with my hymn of thanksgiving."

Father Dailey, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Myles J. Tierney, 102 Pontiac Road, Rochester, a graduate of Aquinas Institute and St. Michael's College, Toronto, attended St. Bernard's Theological Seminary and was ordained for the Diocese of St. Augustine, Florida in 1942.

Father Dailey went to Europe in December, 1945, with Bishop Hurley, newly appointed to the diplomatic service of the Vatican, to serve as the representative of Pope Pius to the Bishops and people of Yugoslavia then under the threat of Communist domination and civil violence led by Marshall Tito. On Memorial Day, 1946, Father Dailey figured in national headlines when he blessed the graves of the 103 American airmen who lost their lives in Yugoslavia during the war and were buried in an American cemetery near Belgrade.

Holy Redeemer Rites For A. W. Koerner

Funeral services for August W. Koerner who conducted a sheet metal business in Rochester for 50 years, were held at Mattie's, 900 Cumberland St., and at Holy Redeemer Church, Monday, June 30.

Mr. Koerner, 77, died at his home, 948 North St., on June 26, 1937.

Solemn Mass of Requiem was offered by the Rev. F. William Stauder assisted by the Rev. Raymond Wahl, deacon, and the Rev. William J. Schifferli, subdeacon. The Rev. Walter Carron was also in the sanctuary.

Bearers were Francis Kinsky, George E. Kermis, Jr., Robert Reeves, Jack Reeves, Walter O'Neill, and Edward Mueller.

Mr. Koerner, who retired from business in 1940, was a member of the Holy Name Society of Holy Redeemer Church, the Eagles and Monon Tribe, Improved Order of Red Men.

He is survived by a son, Raymond A. Koerner, Courier-Journal photographer; a brother, Robert Bertram of Cleveland, and a sister, Mrs. Katherine Derrick of Rochester.
