Construction Work Starts for Modern St. Helen's School

Contracts have been let and work is getting under way on a new school building for St. Helen's School, Gates, on a site of 20,000 sq. ft. and to be the beginning of a project estimated to include eight classrooms.

It is expected that the new school will be completed by the fall of 1948. The school is being served by F. Gossion Company as general contractor with Joseph F. Flynn as architect.

Four modern rooms and 100,000 sq. ft. of space will be provided with principal's office, classroom for mother room, and toilet to be included. The structure will be at St. Helen's School, Gates, N. Y.

The Rev. J. Theodore Sullivan, pastor of St. Helen's Church, is supervising the erection of the school building. It was noted that Father Sullivan's devotion to the school building project was evident in his letter to the parishioners of St. Helen's Church, dated July 10, 1947.
