

5 Cardinals Listed For Buffalo Congress

Buffalo (Special) — Distinguished members of the hierarchy, including His Excellency Bishop James E. Keane of Rochester, will take an active part in the Buffalo Congress of the Holy Eucharist, September 22 through September 25, it was announced here today.

A special invitation to attend the four-day event, marking the centennial year of the Buffalo Diocese, has been extended to prelates in the neighboring diocese of Rochester by directors of the congress. Prior to its establishment in 1868 by Pope Pius IX, the Rochester Diocese was part of the Diocese of Buffalo.

Highlighting the forthcoming congress will be the attendance of five Cardinal Princes of the Church, according to the announcement of the Most Reverend John F. O'Hara, C.S.C., Bishop of Buffalo.

Those will include: His Eminence Francis Cardinal Spellman, Archbishop of New York, who will act as Patron of the Congress; His Eminence Norman Cardinal Gilroy, Archbishop of Chicago;

Sidney, Australia; His Eminence Bernard Cardinal Griffin, Archbishop of Westminster, England; His Eminence James Cardinal McGuigan, Archbishop of Toronto; and His Eminence Samuel Cardinal Stritch, Archbishop of Chicago.

The Apostolic Delegate, Archbishop Amleto Ciccognani of Washington, D. C., will also attend the centennial rites which will feature Catholic faith and devotion in the Holy Eucharist. Provincial to scope, the congress is intended primarily for persons of New York State. The distinguished guests who already have made known their intention to attend, however, give it international prominence.

Niagara Falls. In spiritual preparation for the congress the whole diocese is participating in a perpetual rosary. The Exalted Bishop O'Hara has also urged frequent recitation of the Holy Eucharist by entire families. Accommodations for pilgrims attending the celebration are being made through the housing committee, headed by Rev. James E. Scanlon, Executive Secretary of the congress is the Very Rev. Messrs. Eugene A. Loftham, Eucharistic Congress Headquarters are located in the Statler Hotel, Delaware Avenue, Buffalo 2, New York.

Abp. Stepinac Resolution Faces Congress

Washington (NC) — A resolution urging Congress and the President of the United States to register an official protest to the Yugoslav Government against the imprisonment of Archbishop Alojzije Stepinac of Zagreb, which was introduced during the opening days of the 80th Congress and was pigeonholed by the House Committee on Foreign Affairs throughout the entire session, will still be valid when Congress reconvenes in January.

This was pointed out by the office of Representative John J. Rooney who introduced the resolution on January 3, 1947.

Also effective will be a discharge petition introduced by the representative on May 14, 1947, which if it receives a majority of the representatives' signatures will recall the resolution from the Foreign Affairs committee and bring it to the floor of the House for debate and action.

Closing floor floor. In the closing hours of the first session of the 80th Congress, Mr. Rooney delivered a plea to the legislators to do something about the passage of "this humanitarian legislation."

"There has been a great deal of interest manifested in this petition by an aroused public and I have received letters and postcards by the score from every section of the country and from people representing every faith and denomination," the legislator declared. "The interest shown by these people has been most gratifying to me as it demonstrates that they are anxious to have this shocking injustice rectified."

"I deplore the fact that Congress has not taken definite action in connection with this legislation during the present session. I do hope that when we convene my petition will have the required number of signatures needed to bring this humanitarian legislation to the floor of the House for debate and action."

Report Philippine Parishes Reorganized

St. Columba, N.Y. (NC) — Calling for 18 parishes with a Catholic population of 270,000, the Columbian Fathers in the Philippines report that every parish has been reorganized and that they are now looking to the future.

Father Samuel Sheehan, Columbian Superior in Manila, in a letter received at St. Columba's headquarters here, notes that every parish has undergone a big change. "There is not one of them," he writes, "that has not improved beyond all measure, and the prospects for the future are bright. Most of the parishes now have parochial high schools and we are opening four new ones in July."

In his annual report, Father Sheehan showed that Columbian priests had officiated at 1,224 marriages, 10,448 baptisms and 4,568 First Communions.

Msgr. Guilday, Noted History Expert, Dies

Washington (NC) — Funeral rites were conducted for Msgr. Peter Guilday, 63, veteran member of the Catholic University of America faculty, author and widely recognized authority on church history, in the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception on the university campus. Burial was in Mount Olivet Cemetery.

Monseigneur Guilday died at Providence Hospital in this city after a long illness. At the moment of his death, the population of his town is almost entirely Irish or of Irish descent, and that St. Patrick's Day is officially observed there as a national holiday.
