Pioneer Nun Dies in Kansas, Left Rochester in 1883

Mother M. Antoinette Cuff, who died July 27 at Marymount College, Salina, Kan., was the last surviving member of a missionary group of the Congregation of the Sisters of St. Joseph from Rochester, who pioneered in Kansas.

Mother Antoinette, founder of 70-year-old Marymount College, died on the eve of her 98th birthday after an illness of two months.

The body lay in state in the College chapel and later was taken to Concordia where funeral services were held at Sacred Heart Chapel Wednesday, July 30. Burial was in the convent cemetery.

From Bishop McQuaid

Mother Antoinette, nee Margaret Cuff, a native of Ireland, entered the Community of the Sisters of Saint Joseph, Rochester. She received the habit, Oct. 16, 1880, at the hands of the late Bishop Bernard McQuaid.

When Mother M. Stanislaus Leary, first superior of the Sisters of St. Joseph who were brought by Bishop McQuaid to Rochester, set out for the West in 1883 the young novice volunteered to join the missionary group. She became the First Sister of St. Joseph to be professed in the State of Kansas.

Her life work was intimately associated with the growth of the Salina Diocese and of Catholic education in Kansas.

Her earlier teaching assignments in the 1880's and 1890's were in schools which might be considered frontier institutions.

Mrs. "Buffalo Bill"

Among her activities in North Platte were William Jeffris and his wife and Edna Cody, daughter of the famous "Buffalo Bill."

When Mother Stanislaus in 1890 was forced to give up her post as Mother General because of ill health, Mother Antoinette assumed direction of the Concordia Community. Her administration (1890 to 1922) paralleled the period of expansion and stabilization of Kansas.

During the 32 years of Mother Antoinette's leadership, the Community flourished, filling up and directing institutions throughout the Middle West. The Nazareth Motherhouse at Concordia was built in the first years of the new administration.

Born July 24, 1861, at Killala, County Mayo, Ireland, Mother Antoinette came to America during the Civil War to Carbondale, Pa., where the family home has been. Two of her sisters, Sister Clare and Sister Louise, also pioneers in the Congregation, died in 1926 and 1942 respectively.

Abp. Hanna's Body Met By Rochester Kin

The SS. President Monroe, carrying the body of Archbishop Edward J. Hanna of San Francisco, was boarded by three Rochester relatives of the late prelate when it docked last week in New York.

Visiting the ship's stateroom where the archbishop's body, inclosed in triple coffin, lay in state, were his two brothers, Frank and James Hanna, both of Rochester.

Also present was a nephew, the Rev. Austin B. Hanna, chaplain of St. Joseph's Villa, Rochester. Father Hanna led the group which also included Capt. P. J. Chiles of the American President Lines, in special prayers.

Archbishop Hanna died in Rome in 1914. His body is now enroute for final burial in San Francisco. The President Monroe left New York August 3 and will proceed to the west coast via Cuba and the Panama Canal.
