Sacred Heart Parish Groups Plan for 1,000 at Outing

More than 1,000 persons are expected to attend the first annual picnic for members of Sacred Heart parish, scheduled from 8 to 3 p. m., Sunday, August 17, in Seneca Park, Grounds No. 2.

Six parish organizations have combined to sponsor the outing, which will be a basket picnic with no ticket sale, according to Theodore Houck, president of the Holy Name Society Men's Club. Families who do not wish to pack lunches will find hot pop, coffee, ice cream and cake available.

Families without transportation are advised to go to the school hall between 3:30 and 3 p. m., from where they will be driven to the park by committee members.

Various types of music will be provided throughout the afternoon and evening by means of a loudspeaker system under the direction of the parish Boy Scout committee, headed by James

Chapman, director. There also will be dancing in the bandstand. The Scout Committee will be prepared for first aid treatment, if needed. Many games and contests are scheduled, with gifts and prizes for both children and adults.

Houck this week announced the names of committees from the parish groups as follows: Catholic War Veterans, John Barrows, general chairman of the outing and Al Green.

Men's Club: William Fedman, Oscar Trabold, William Flynn, Frank Fink, Leo Preston, Thomas Tydings, George Esse, Joseph Houser, William T. Nolan, Arthur P. Parren.

Holy Name Units Plan Boston Meet

The proper number of cars, departure time, route to be followed, stops to be made, division of the expense, etc. If additional space is available or needed this will be cleared with the Transportation Committee chairman.

The chairman should also be fully advised of the number of persons traveling by auto so that a caravan can be arranged if possible, permitting the various groups to travel together.

The National Holy Name convention, first held since 1934, is called at the invitation of His Excellency the Most Reverend Richard J. Cushing, Archbishop of Boston. Previous national convocations were held in Baltimore in 1911, Washington in 1924 and New York in 1931. That last convention was referred to as "the greatest demonstration of faith ever witnessed" and the national headquarters say that this year's convention is being undertaken on a scale not even dreamed of in the past.

As a mass appeal to piety of mind and otherworldly, the spiritual exercises incident to the convention with many, many thousands of Catholic men participating, will defy all material precedent.

In an age which has seen centuries-old bastions toward the Catholic Church and suspicion of motives supplanted and surpassed by a tidal wave of unbelief which has taken political form to engulf a large part of the world, they will stand out as something else as a living reminder to all peoples that eternal salvation lies, not in Moscow or Paris, but in the heart of God, through reverence and respect for His Divine Son.

This Rochester Diocesan Union Convention Committee is headed by James V. Taylor, 50 Chestnut St., who will be assisted by Frank J. Davis, 202 Lakeview Pl., secretary, Arthur E. Welch, 33 Furlong Rd., in charge of all transportation matters, and James F. Osterman, 100 Jersey St., to be in charge of the delegation en route to the convention.

The Rev. Patrick J. Flynn, Diocesan Spiritual Director, is expected to head the delegation from this diocese and it is hoped that the parish spiritual directors may be company their delegations.

Deannery chairmen have been appointed as follows: Auburn, John J. Brennan, Corning, William Cassidy, Geneva, Louis McGowan, Elmira, Cornelius J. Milliken.

Descriptive folders giving many details of the convention, have been mailed to the president of each parish society and he will have full charge of the arrangements for his parish.

Parish delegations will make their own hotel reservations directly with the Housing Committee of the National Holy Name Society, 9 Whitmore St., Boston 11, Mass. The housing committee has made a survey of available rooms in the homes of delegates when hotel facilities have been exhausted. Requests for rooms should be sent in no later than Sept. 2nd.

While the convention opens on Wednesday, Oct. 1, and concludes with the parade on Sunday, Oct. 5, not all men may find it possible to be present for all of that

Adult Instruction Class Listed in Elmira Rectory

Another of the series of instructions for adults interested in learning the teachings and practices of the Catholic Faith will be conducted in Elmira's St. Peter and Paul Church rectory, 168 High St. beginning the first week in September.

Announced in The Chinese parish publication the instruction class will be held every Sunday (Wednesday and Friday) evenings at 8:45 p. m.

"Not only non-Catholics, but Catholics who feel themselves rusty in the practical knowledge of their faith are invited," The Chinese states.

"If each of our parishioners will run over the list of his non-Catholic friends, he should be able to find at least one who has at some time expressed an interest in the Church or who would easily be interested if it were properly approached."

The Rev. William J. Naughton, pastor, reports that 9 converts were received into the Church in June, making a total of 34 in the time of the delegations.

Some of the delegations will plan to attend all sessions, others will arrive for the Friday evening Candle Light Holy Hour services, others may not arrive until Saturday morning.

Error on Founding Of Order Corrected

Montreal (NC)—For some years the Catholic hierarchy of Canada—Canada Ecclesiastical—has listed St. Louis Marie Grignon de Montfort, who was canonized July 30, as the founder of the Brothers of St. Gabriel.

This has been an error which is corrected by a decree of the Sacred Congregation of Rites, which has ruled after a long and most careful study that the Brothers of St. Gabriel were not founded by the recently canonized saint, but by another member of the Montfortians, Rev. Father Gabriel Deshayes.

Prison Chaplains Meet First Time in 300 Years

Paris (NC)—A general congress of prison chaplains has been held in France for the first time in three centuries. The last was held at the instance of St. Vincent de Paul, himself.

The 197 Congress took place in Paris. Most of the 250 chaplains who serve the prisoners in France attended, together with visitors from the Conference of St. Vincent de Paul who were headed by Professor Jacques Zeller, international president of the society.

The Congress heard discussions bearing on their apostolate and suggestions of ways to harmonize and enrich their methods of action. It was agreed that their efforts still remain difficult and often bring disappointment, but all agreed on the importance of carrying on the work.

The director general of French prisons, in the name of the government, thanked the chaplains and their assistants for their useful work, which, he said, was not only necessary for the eternal salvation of the prisoners, but also advantageous to civil society. In making possible a rehabilitation of the unfortunates.
