Persons preferring to drive to The chairman should also be Boston may make arrangements fully advised of the number of with their own delegation for persons traveling by auto so that a caravan can be arranged if possible, permitting the various groups to travel together.

The National Holy Name Convention, first held since 1936, is called at the invitation of His Excellency the Most Reverend Richard J. Cushing, Archbishop of Boston. Previous national conclaves were held in Baltimore in 1911, Washington in 1924 and New York 1936. That last convention was referred to as "the greatest demonstration of faith ever witnessed" and the national headquarters say that this year's convention is being undertaken "on a scale not even dreamed of, let alone approached, in the past."

"As a mass appeal to piety, divorced of all considerations, political and otherwise' the spiritual exercises incident to the convention, with many, many thousands of Catholic men participating, "will defy all material precedent.

In an age which has seen centuries-old hostility toward the Catholic Church and suspicion of its motives, supplanted and surpassed by a tidal wave of Godlessness which has taken political form to engulf a large part of the world, they will stand out above everything else as a living reminder to all peoples that eternal salvation lies, not in Moscow or man-made Utopias, but in the Mind and Heart of God, through reverence and respect for His Divine Son.

This Rochester Diocesan Union Convention Committee is headed by James V. Taylor, 80 Chestnut St., who will be assisted by Frank R. Davis, 202 Lakeview Pk., secretary; Arthur E. Welch, 35 Furlong Rd., in charge of all transportation matters, and James F. Osterman, 100 Jersey St., to be in charge of the delegation en route and at the convention. The Rev. Patrick J. Flynn, Diocesan Spiritual Director is expected to head the delegates from this diocese and it is hoped that many parish spiritual directors may accompany their delegations.

Deanery chairmen have been appointed as follows: Auburn, John F. Brennan; Corning, William Cassidy; Genova, Louis McGuigan; Elmira, Cornelius J. Milliken.

Descriptive folders giving many details of the convention, have been mailed to the president of each parish society and he will have full charge of the arrangements for his parish.

Parish delegations will make their own hotel reservations directly with the Housing Committee-National Convention, Holy Name Society, 9 Whitmore St., Boston 11, Mass. This housing committee has made a survey of available rooms in the homes of delegates when hotel facilities have been exhausted. Requests for rooms should be sent in no later than Sept. 2nd.

While the convention opens on Wednesday, Oct. 1, and concludes with the parade on Sunday, Oct. 5, not all men may find it possible to be present for all of that time. Some of the delegations will plan to attend all sessions, others will arrive for the Friday evening Candle Light Holy Hour services; others may not arrive until Saturday morning.

IMPRISONED BY CHINA REDS

Released after 78 days' imprisonment by Chinese Communists, Bishop Ignatius Krause, C.M., Polish Vincentian Bishop of Shunteh'li, was flown to Peiping with 12 priests, one brother and ten sisters in U. S. Army relief planes. He is pictured being welcomed by Very Rev. Harold W. Rigney, S.V.D. (right) of Techny, Ill, rector of the Catholic University of Peiping, upon the plane's arrival. Rev. Patrick O'Connor, S.S.C., NCWC correspondent in China, accompanied the evacuees. (NC Photos)

Board Inspects Camp Life Of 100 Girls at Villa Maria

While the nation sweltered in a heat wave over a hundred girls of Chemung County assembled at Villa Maria on Harris Hill Wednesday, August 6, to begin a wonderful week at Camp.

After each girl was examined by the Camp Nurses, she was sent to the swimming pool where Mrs. Joseph O'Hara, Waterfront Director, tested and classified their swimming ability. And so the week at Camp started off with a Bang, and the girls have been kept very busy ever since.

At seven o'clock the girls are up and at seven-thirty the entire Camp kneels in the big recreation room for the celebration of Mass and the reception of Holy Communion. After Mass comes breakfast which is a very musical time at Camp for the children love to sing for and with their meals. After breakfast the Camp is cleaned thoroughly and then classes begin in various activities: singing, swimming, sports, crafts, dancing, first aid, and dramatics.

This year under the direction of Miss Keown the campers have been taken on two long hikes around the many hills which surround the Camp. These hikers have served as informal classes in nature lore and outdoor craft. As the girls walk along the counselors point out to them the various kinds of trees and the different species of birds which are found in the vicinity of Harris Hill.

Cooking out is a favorite pastime at Camp and Villa Maria has had its share of the hot dogs and hamburgers and open fires. The girls showed that they could eat as much as their counselors could cook for them and then some.

A large quantity of craft material was left in the Craft Lodge after the Boys' Camp. The result was that the girl campers are now spending all their free time making bracelets and whistle cords and pot holders of many and beautiful colors.

The Camp Fires have been loads of fun for all the campers as well as the counselors. The first night a Masquerade Ball was the feature event. The Judges finally settled on Miss Joan Ann Sullivan as the winner of the Best Costume Award.

Stunt night was a big success. Each cabin produced some type of entertainment skits, drama, songs, imitations. Expert ballet dancing by Dorothy Wotzdik proved that the Camp had some really fine talent.

On Monday night the Camp entertained the Camp Villa Maria Board of Directors and a few other guests. Present were The Very Rev. William J. Brien, Rev. William J. Naughton, Rev. John Murphy, Miss Mary E. Fitzgerald, Executive Director of the Catholic Charities, Mrs. Joseph W. Dailey, Director of the Boys' Camp, Mr. Joseph Kosmicki, Mrs. Edward Frawley, Mrs. Burt Bogardus, Mrs. Theodore Doran. After dinner the girls presented a Camp Fire program which povided many laughs as well as some real acting. Fr. Brien thanked the campers for their part in the program and congratulated the counselors on the excellent work which they were doing. He commended in particular the daily reception of Holy Communion which has been the laudable practice of so many of the campers.

Mrs. Joseph O'Hara on the closing night of Camp distributed Red Cross swimming awards to nearly eighty campers.

Yugoslavs Reported Grabbing Seminary

Rome — Yugoslav authorities have completely requisitioned a seminary in Capodistria, near Pola in Venezia Giulia according to reports reaching here.

Previously, the Yugoslavs had used one hall of the seminary as living quarters for officers of their occupying forces.

St. Anthony's Wins Trophy

St. Anthony's were the victors in the playoffs of the Elmira Catholic Church Softball League by virtue of their victory over St. Charles last Sunday at Eldridge Park.

Behind the fine five-hit pitching performance of Father St. George, the winners cinched their needed second win by the score of 13-2. Father St. George aided his own victory with a perfect four for four, including a double and a home run with two mates aboard.

The champs were off to a flying start with four runs across in the first inning, adding one more in the second, all off Gustin the starter for St. Charles. Yusko, who replaced Gustin, was dubbed for five runs in the third and yielded three more in the sixth. St. Anthony's will receive the Knights of Columbus Trophy awarded to the winner of the league.
