7 RETREATANTS REWARDED

Faithful in having made the closed retreat each year for five years since the Diocesan Retreat House on Seneca Lake opened in 1942 brought citations to these five Holy Rosary Parish members and two others. Presentation is made by the pastor, Monsignor Charles F Shay (right). Rewarded were (from left) Arthur Jewett, John Nothnagle, Joseph Attinasi, George Siegrist and Paul Imhof, above. Also James P. B. Duffy and Frank R. Davis, latter took photo.

51 Holy Rosary Retreatants Hear of Pretical Charity

Practical methods of applying true charity and love of one's neighbor formed the theme of last weekend's retreat at Our Lady of the Lake Retreat House which accommodated one of the largest groups of [illegible] session.

Fifty-one men led by the Rev. Joseph S. Wheeler, assistant pastor of Holy Rosary [illegible] from the four parishes of Holy Rosary at Patricks Most Precious Blood and Holy Apostles.

The group was united in Holy Rosary where the pastor, the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Charles F. Shay awarded miraculous medals to seven men who had made five consecutive retreats at Geneva. Each had made every retreat with their parish group since the opening of the Seneca Lake House.

Sessions were conducted by the Redemptorist Fathers Augustine Arnold, Thomas Sanderson, William Tobin and Edmund Bowen. Program included discussions, visits to the Blessed

First Chinese Student Due for Nazareth Study

First of a group of Chinese students who will be educated under free scholarships at Nazareth College in a projected 10-year training plan worked out by the Chinese Bishops' Committee on Scholarships, has arrived at the West Coast.

Now in San Francisco, Cecilia Chang is one of 108 Chinese students who have been granted scholarships to 33 American colleges in response to appeals of the Chinese Hierarchy.

Plan Explained

Purpose of the 10-year plan is the education of Catholic lay leaders for China. According to the Rev. Dr. John T. S. Mao, executive secretary of the Bishops Scholarships Committee, a number of students from non-Catholic families will be selected.

He also stated that the granting of the scholarships will tend to dispel the illusion widely spread in China, that the Catholic Church whose missionaries work mainly among the peasants and farmers, is not interested in intellectual affairs.

Miss Chang, who is a talented music student, will continue her musical studies taking piano and voice at the Rochester College. The Chinese girl has already met the head of Nazareth's music department, Sister Mary Kathleen, who has been giving extended instrumental courses at a San Francisco high school run by the Presentation sisters.

The girl is expected to arrive in Rochester shortly before the opening of the Fall term.

Among the colleges and universities participating in the Chinese scholarship program are Fordham University, New Rochelle College, Manhattanville, Niagara University College of Fordham, Seton Hill, Catholic University of America, Notre Dame University, Loyola University Marquette University and the University of San Francisco.

Work Begins On New Type School In Mt. Read Parish

The newest type of school building in Rochester is being constructed for Our Mother of Sorrows Parish, oldest Catholic Church in Rochester.

Work is rapidly progressing on an all-steel, prefabricated and pre-insulated building at 4900 Mt. Read Blvd., Rev. Daniel B. O'Rourke, pastor, reports. R. B. Weld, Inc., are the contractors.

The one-story building, which will accommodate more than 300 pupils, is expected to be completed and ready for classes by Oct. 1. Enrolled for the fall term are 140 children.

Sessions will be started on schedule Sept. 2 at the temporary school, a residence at 3131 Latta Rd., purchased last year. The children will be transferred to the new school as soon as it is ready.

The modern, prefabricated school will be the first of its kind in Rochester. The fireproof structure will be 128 by 40 feet in dimension enclosing six large classrooms and a refectory built around a central 64-foot foyer.

Last fall the first school in the century-old parish was opened on Latta Rd. The close of school in June saw 100 children in attendance. First graduating class of nine members averaged 88 per cent in Regents examinations.

With the rapid advance in enrollment during early 1947 intermediate accommodations were necessitated. Father O'Rourke decided in favor of the pre-fabricated school in lieu of a conventional construction requiring nearly a year for building.

Diamond Jubilee Set For 2 Nuns, (Sisters)

A unique anniversary will be celebrated on August 27, when Sister M. Athanasia Reinhart and Sister M. Reinhart, sisters by birth, will observe the diamond jubilee of their reception into the Rochester Sisters of St. Joseph.

Sister Athanasia is now at Blessed Sacrament Convent, Rochester and Sister Antonia at the Villa Maria, Maryland.

It was sixty years ago, on August 27, 1887, that Sister M. Athanasia and Sister M. Antonia, who were from the parish of St. John the Evangelist, Greece, solemnly dedicated their lives to the service of God. Dressed in the garb of widow of this world, they walked up the aisle of the Mother House chapel on Jay Street, and accepted from Bishop McQuaid the veil and habit of brides of Christ.

Since then the two jubilarians have spent their lives as teachers in many of the parish schools of the Diocese of Rochester.

Sister M. Athanasia taught at St. Monica's, Rochester, for fifteen years, at Holy Apostles', Rochester, for six years, and at the Old Cathedral School for ten years. She was principal at Our Lady of Perpetual Help, Rochester, for six years, at St. Francis Xavier, Rochester, for six years, and at Our Lady of Victory, Rochester, for six years.

Sister M. Antonia served as principal at St. Agnes', Avon, for nine years; at St. Francis Xavier, Rochester, for six years; at St. Theodore, Gates, six years; at St. Mary's, Dansville; St. Patrick's, Mount Morris, and St. Joseph's, Wayland.

On August 27, 1887, Misses Athanasia and Antonia, both then living at St. Francis Xavier in Rochester, observed their fiftieth anniversary. Rt. Rev. Msgr. Charles F. Shay, pastor at Holy Rosary Church, was celebrant of the jubilee Mass in the Convent chapel.

Hymn Written For Veterans

F. M. Ferrarese, organist for the past 17 years at St. Lucy's Church, has been compelled to retire because of failing eyesight.

Mr. Ferrarese recently received a copyright for his new composition "Queen of Peace, Pray for Us." The latest work is dedicated to the mothers, wives and sweethearts of men in the service.

The hymn is an "Ave Maria" in four-four time in the key of A flat major. The movement begins with a rhythmic expression by the organ followed by the "Ave Maria," in solo tenor. After this the poetical phase of the composition is taken up in largo with prayer in F minor, followed by arpeggios to the harps and the melody from the organ with vocal "of "Holy Mary, Mother of God, Pray for Us." As an undertone, the composition carries the distant sound of bells that call the worshippers to prayer.

Another hymn, composed by Mr. Ferrarese, is titled "We Long for God." The veteran organist also composed "A Tear on the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier," a funeral march.
