China Missioner Officiates at Wedding Here

First marriage ever performed in English by a Columbian Father who has been in the China missions for the past ten years, took place recently in Blessed Sacrament Church.

Miss Dolores Kenny became the bride of Daniel C. Curry, July 26, at a ceremony at which the Rev. Arthur Waters of the Columbian Mission Order, a relation by marriage, officiated.

Father Waters is passing through Rochester on his way to his native Ireland after his ten years' labor in the Chinese mission fields.

He is presently stopping with his brother and sister in law, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Waters of 90 Brookfield Rd. At the completion of his one-year leave, the missionary will return to China.

The family connection between the bride and the priest is through Father Waters' brother, who is married in Ireland to a cousin of the former Miss Kenny.

Congress Has 82 Catholics

There are 82 Catholics among the 527 members of Congress according to a survey of the religious affiliations of the members of Congress published in this week's issue of Newsweek.

Congress has 432 members in the House of Representatives and 95 in the Senate. Senator Billie of Mississippi has not been sworn in. All but two reported in the Newsweek inquiry.

The answers indicated that the Protestant Congressmen number 424, the Catholics 82, Jews 7 and 13 acknowledge no religious affiliation. Of the Catholics, 52 are Democrats, 29 are Republicans, and one is a member of the American Labor Party.

Of the Protestants the Methodists lead with 109 members, followed by the Presbyterians with 69, the Baptists with 68, the Episcopalians with 63, the Christians or Disciples Church with 28, the Congregationalists with 27, and the Lutherans with 21. Other denominations represented have six members or less.

Of the Congressmen who profess no church affiliation two were Democrats and 11 Republicans. The chief significance of the Newsweek statistics was that less than 3 per cent of the members of Congress (13 out of 527 men) professed no religion.

Bismarck for his See city, where he will be installed solemnly on Aug. 15. A large delegation of Redeemptorists accompanied Bishop McManus to attend the installation ceremony.

New Abbey Planned At Benedict's Tomb

Paris - (NC) - The cornerstone for a new Benedictine Abbey to be erected near the tomb of St. Benedict, founder of the Benedictine Order, at Saint Benoit-sur-Loire in the Diocese of Orleans, has been laid by His Eminence, Emmanuel Celestine Cardinal Suhard, Archbishop of Paris during festivities marking the 14th centenary of St. Benedict.

Remains of the saint have been resting at this place since the seventh century. His body was first interred at the Abbey of Montecassino, which was destroyed in World War II. The Abbey was pillaged by the Lombards in the seventh century and abandoned. For the present, the remains of the saint are in the monastery at Fleury-sur-Loire under an expedition to recover the relics of St. Benedict. They were found at Montecassino, together with those of St. Benedict's sister, Saint Scholastica. The relics of St. Benedict were taken to Fleury and those of Saint Scholastica to Le Mans.

Christians Boycott Prague Youth Rally

Prague - The recent so-called World Festival of Democratic Youth—sponsored by the Communist-organized Federation of Czech Youth—was not attended by Christian youth organizations of Czechoslovakia, nor were there any representatives of British youth groups, the youth organization of the French Popular Republican Movement (M.R.P.), or kindred organizations in the Netherlands, Belgium and Italy.

According to an announcement by the central office of youth organizations of the Catholic-supported Czech People's party, the Standing Conference of National Voluntary Youth Organizations in London sent word that none of its affiliated youth groups, such as Boy Scouts, Catholic Boy Scouts, Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A., would be represented at the festival.

The announcement, which was published in People's Democracy, central organ of the People's party, expressed regret that the organizers of the Prague Festival have not found a way to attract representatives of all the world's young people to the Prague meeting.
