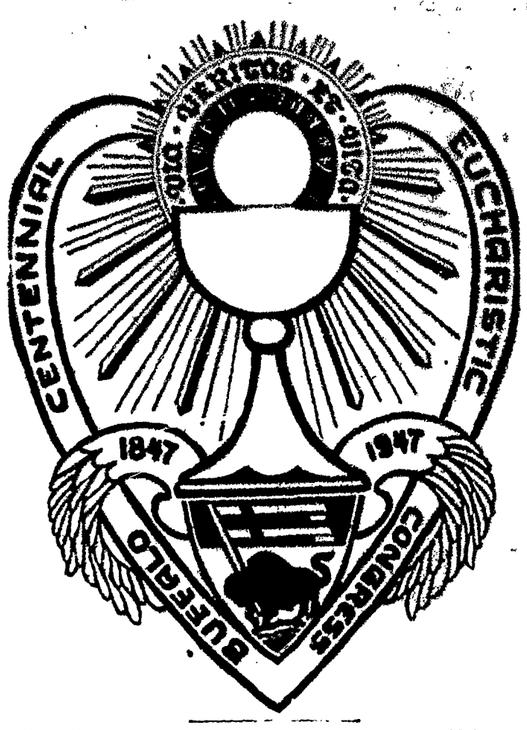
Symbolic of Eucharistic Congress Set in Buffalo



Catholics throughout the State of New York will become familiar with this above seal of the Buffalo Centennial Eucharistic Congress. Posters with this official seal will carry the dates of the Congress Sept 22 23, 24 and 25.

They have been sent to thousands of parishes throughout the state of New York, to parts of Pennsylvania, and to nearby Canada for display in the back of churches. The Eucharistic Congress, similar to Marian Congress held in Ottawa this year, is a provincial one, taking in the entire state of New York. His Eminence Francis Cardinal Spellman, Archbishop of New York and Metropolitan of New York State, is patron of the congress.

The seal represented here, enclosed in part, symbolizes the Eucharistic Host, Sacrament of Love, and is significant of the Catholic charity for which the Buffalo Diocese is known. The theme of the congress, "I Am the Way, the Truth, and the Life" is lettered in Latin around the Host in the center part of the seal. The seal was designed by Sister M. Geraldine Rutkuski of the Franciscan Sisters of St. Joseph, Immaculate Academy in Hamburg, N. Y. It was chosen from twenty original works of art.

Meanwhile, the programs for several of the sectional meetings which are playing an important part in the congress, have been announced. A sectional meeting for Catholic nurses from hospitals throughout New York State and neighboring states will be held in the Georgian Room of the Hotel Statler Tuesday Sept 23. The Most Rev. Joseph P. Donahue D.D., V.G., Auxiliary Bishop of New York will preside at the nurses' meeting.

Chairman and first speaker of the event will be the Most Rev. Karl J. Alter D.D. Bishop of Toledo, O. Bishop Alter is the former director and organizer of the Diocesan Charities in the Toledo Diocese. He has also served as director of the National School of Social Service in Washington, D. C. At present he is the episcopal chairman of the Social Action Department of the National Catholic Welfare Conference, and holds the same office for the Catholic Hospital Association.

Paper Exposes False Use Of Priests' Names

Seattle —(NC)— Misuse of priests' names in throwaway-sheets publicity to bolster the film "Mom And Dad," which has been given a Class C, wholly objectionable, rating By the Legion of Decency, and is showing at a theater here, has been charged by The Catholic Northwest Progress, news paper of the Diocese of Seattle.

The paper stated that the throwaway publicity quoted five priests as urging patronage of the film. The paper stated it attempted to contact one priest in Dubuque, but found he had been dead for several months. Another priest in Joliet, Ill., said he previewed the picture 18 months ago, found it "very gruesome and revolting" in depicting the ravages of venereal diseases and had requested the company to stop using his name in the publicity. Another priest made a similar statement to the paper.

The Progress reported that a storm of angry protests has arisen "where the purveyors of filth have tossed the false publicity with which they are seeking to bolster a revolting and dreary film."

Budenz Urges Bond of Union

New York (NC) Leaders in labor and industry must achieve that "bond of union" urged in the papal encyclicals or they will "continue in eternal battle" which will lead to rising uncertainty, upheaval and general insecurity," Louis F. Budenz former editor of the Communist Daily Worker and now on the staff of Fordham University stated on the Catholic Hour this evening.

It was the fourth in a series of addresses by Mr. Budenz on the program, which is produced by the National Council of Catholic Men and carried over the National Broadcasting Company network.

Cites Pontiff

"Perhaps we cannot go far as yet toward that all-out cooperation recommended by the Popes - bringing self-organized workers and self-organized employers together in each industry, a working arrangement to be sanctioned and confirmed by the state," Mr. Budenz continued. "But if we can't reach the end of the road at once, we can at least set out upon the journey. It is H's Holiness, Pius XII, I believe, who, when Papal Secretary of State, well put it when he said 'We must "grow up" with the developing cooperative society which this "bond of union" envisages.'

Both labor and industry desire mainly two things, the speaker continued, security and freedom. For the workingman, he said, security means 'a wage that will protect the family not merely in its sustenance and education but in times of family emergencies' while freedom means 'a right to speak out economically and politically as a part of the democratic state.'

"Any intimidation of him as a worker any threat real or implied to his livelihood because he did not conform to the dictates of the ruling group in the state, is not to be condoned."

Saint's Town Burned

Paris A fire originating in a laundry in the native village of St. Vincent de Paul, near Dax, destroyed several buildings housing 300 old people and orphans cared for by the Sisters of Charity and the Vincentians. One person was burned to death. The house in which St. Vincent was born, at some distance from the fire, escaped damage.

Irish Study Reasons For Land Flight

By LEILA CARROLL

Dublin — (NC) — Problems of rural Ireland, with particular emphasis on the need of measures to stop the flight from the land to the cities, were discussed by representative speakers from all parts of the island, Catholics as well as Protestants, during a Rural Week held at St. McCarten's Seminary in Monaghan.

The week was sponsored by Muintir na Tire (Gaelic for "People of the Land,") an organization founded some years ago by the Rev. J. M. Hayes, who is chairman of the national executive board of the organization.

Other speakers were Bishops Eugene O'Callaghan of Clogher and Patrick Lyons of Kilmore; Sir Shane Leslie, well-known writer and convert; Ernest Blythe, former Minister of Finance in Dail Eireann, a Protestant from the North; the Rev. P. McLevitt of Maynooth College and the Very Rev. Dean Finnegan of Carrickmacross.

Class War Hit

In his opening address Father Hayes denounced the preaching of hate, class war and materialism and declared that the un-Christian so-called "advance" of humanity had succeeded in destroying everything and, if it went on, would destroy itself. It was time for a world-wide rebellion against such madness and savagery, he said.

Advocating the abolition of class distinction — a primary object of his organization — he pointed to positive action of a true Christianity as the only way to overcome class war and hate, saying that a mental change was more important than an economic one. "We must build," he said, "not on mere materialism but on all classes united by the living charity of Christ. The best heritage we could leave our children is a Christian social order. If that principle were accepted many things would happen . . . and there would be enough for all. It is a pity today to see good nations disunited when the powers of evil unite."

Bishop O'Callaghan said there was no reason why the rural people should be the serfs and slaves of the community. It was time, and after for a change. The great problem facing the country was the fall in the rural population caused by the greater amenities and higher wages in the towns, he said. If the rural areas were to hold the people they would have to offer them equal remuneration and amenities.

Ex-Dachau Priest Arrives in New York

New York —(NC)— A Polish priest who survived five years in German concentration camps was among the 731 refugees and 102 American repatriates who arrived here aboard the liner Ernie Pyle. He is the Rev. Wladyslaw Zbigniew Mlynik, 42, of Mielzawa, Poland, who came to this country to labor with the Conventual Fathers of St. Bonaventure's province, Lake Forest, Ill.

He related that he was taken to Dachau when the Nazis overran Poland early in the war. About 1,500 Polish priests died during their confinement at Dachau, he stated, and he was the only one of 45 from his home town who survived.

Asked why he thought he had been spared, he shook his head and answered: "God has some great work ahead for me."

Flies to India To Visit Missionary Son

Barcelona, Spain — (NC) — A 73-year-old grandma, Mrs. Pe Reparaz of this city, has completed an airplane trip of more than 7,000 miles to see her missionary son in India for the first time since his ordination.

The elderly lady had several times planned to visit her son, the Rev. Luis Reparaz, S.J., but was prevented by the Spanish Civil War and then by World War II. She spent three months with him at Karachi, India, attending Mass offered by him and receiving Holy Communion from his hands for the first time.

Near East Missions

Francis Cardinal Spellman, President
Very Rev. Thomas J. McMahon, S.T.D., National Secretary
Rev. Andrew M. Reppetto, S.T.L., Assistant Secretary

Birthday Gift

On Our Lady's Birthday, September 8, why not have your offering in her honor by mailing Near East missionaries, or make a deposit in "Mary's Bank" for Near East needs?

CAN YOU ADOPT ONE?

We were happy to hear that Bishop Khoreiche of Khoziah, in Iraq (1), has been able to make the long journey to Rome to see the Holy Father. From the Holy City the aged Bishop has sent us a list of his needy clergy with the request that we find benefactors to help them.

Can you give four hundred dollars to adopt either John Ghadbi, Joseph Tesfay or Audia Kuki, all students of theology in the Seminary at Mosul? Your adopted son will pray for you and yours now, and he will remember you daily in his Mass when ordained.

Write for a picture of this ambitious student at prayer and at work. Remember that these students are too poor to pay for their training and we must have more and more missionary priests in the vineyard.

SAD MONTH

September is the month of Our Lady of Sorrows. Members will receive indulgences on September 8, 15, 21, and 29. Why not be a partner with our missionaries and share in their Masses? Five dollars will enroll the whole family, living and dead, for a whole year.

BIG MONEY

One hundred and eighty dollars may be big money, yet it will give the altar furnishings and vestments for the little chapel of Mesaria, East Africa, so urgently needed. Can you help?

"LEAVE ALL HOPE"

"Leave all hope, you who enter here," wrote the poet Dante. This will never be over the entrance of our leper hospital at Ghaziabad, India, if you keep adding your mite to the DARKEST LEPER FUND.

GOOD GIFT

A picture of Our Lady on September 8, her birthday, would be a grand gift. Twenty dollars will purchase one, and we shall place it in a chapel of the Holy Land.

GUILA YOURS?

Guila is a little town in Ethiopia, with only 150 Catholics. Father Abraham, its pastor, asks a thousand dollars to build a little chapel. Will it be yours?

TALK TO BOYS

Mr. Basil, priest of the BASILIANS, our School Chats, loves to talk to "Dreamers in the Trees," saying: "I shall tell you more what things do your hearts." For this holy purpose we must have Catholic schools in all our missions. Won't you give a contribution for the Basilians, and help us to support them soon?

FULL LITTLE MOUTHS

Your contact with the "CHILDREN'S BREAD" will help us to fill the hungry little mouths of orphan children in the care of Sister Cecilia in the city of Baku. Our friend and Apostle of Charity in that city, St. Louis IX, made 1270 such years for his orphans.

THE NEW BIBLE

When the persecuting Emperor Julian the Apostate demanded the return of St. Basil's holy vessels, a thunderbolt destroyed the pagan temple of Apollo. Relics of the martyrs are enclosed in the New Testaments, to obtain the shelter from divine Mass. Can you give ten dollars to supply one for a chapel of Bishop Rabban in the Holy Land?

EVEN ONE CENT

Perhaps you have seen Archbishop Ivanios of India, who is now visiting this country. Write for a picture of this wonderful convert Bishop, who has FIFTY made many converts. Please do help his work.

FORGETTING?

Those Irish Sisters of St. Columban, way over in Shanghai, China, are depending on us. They work among the Russians. Perhaps you will want to remember them with a bit shelter gift.

THREE DOLLARS

This will furnish the Holy Infancy for one orphan child, as in happier times. Won't you give one? Write for a picture.

TWELVE PATTENS

Every day Pope Pius XII, Gregory shows twelve peoples at his table. Do you know about the Gregorian Masses, offered on thirty days? Write for our free leaflet.
