Guadalcanal Hero Slated for Boy Scout Rally

The Vincentian priest who played a heroic role in the Pacific fighting against the Japanese, will be the speaker at the Vincentian Boy Scout Rally, slated for Sunday afternoon, Sept. 21, in Rochester's Exposition Park.

He is the Rev. Frederick P. Gilling, O.S.B., a missionary to China and Korea, widely in Rochester known, having been here with the Vincentian missionaries and having served as a Senior Catholic Chaplain at the U. S. Navy Training Center, Hampton.

Ordained in 1930, Father Gilling spent seven years as a missionary in Kwangsi Province, Central China.

Commissioned in the U. S. Navy in 1942, he served on Guadalcanal, and at other Pacific Posts. He was decorated for heroism under fire with the Legion of Merit, the Navy and Marine Corps Medal and the Presidential Unit Citation (Guadalcanal).

During his service with the marine and aviation and ended his service as Lieutenant Commander.

Parties to Open At Immaculate

Full series of Friday night dancing parties at Immaculate Conception auditorium will be opened with the first dance Friday, Sept. 2.

Functioning for the past seven years, the Immaculate Youth Club, corner of South Plymouth and Edinboro, enters to the high school crowd of the city.

Joe Nolan's 12-piece orchestra provides the dancing music from 8 to 12 each Friday night. Miss Margie Forwell, of Madison High School, and Don O'Connor are vocalists.

All arrangements are made by a committee of young people under direction of young married couples who act as chaperones. Opportunities are given to the teenagers to provide their own talent on the stage. Price of admission is 40 cents.
