MEN OF MOSCOW
RED INTRIGUE
by JOHN O'CONNOR

VIII—The Middle East
The stirring Moslem world, witnessing the decline of the British Empire, is alert to any move on the part of the Reds. The Reds, in turn, are aware of the potential strength of the Moslem world.

As a matter of fact, the only religious pilgrimage to sacred shrines permitted any religion by Moscow has been that granted to Moslems.
Even Turkey, with a record of many wars with Russia, is reported to have a Communist cell within the precincts of the capital city. No membership details are available and the name of Hali Duffi Dervishes is disclaimed by Turks as not being of their race. Yet the position of Turkey, astride the Dardanelles, speaks for itself. It is also the springboard to the Middle East.

In the bordering countries Syria is reported to have at least 11,000 followers. Lebanon another 11,000 — and turbulent Palestine at least 2,000.

Mgr. Boppel Rites Held

He was ordained to the priesthood at Holy Redeemer Church, Rochester, by Bishop Bernard J. McQuaid on Feb. 8, 1921.

His first assignment was as assistant pastor of St. Peter and Paul's Church. In 1927 he was named pastor of St. Vincent Church in Colchester and in 1931 he was appointed to serve as pastor of St. John's Church, Greece and Holy Ghost Church, Coldwater, simultaneously. In 1939 he became pastor of St. Boniface Church.

Disruption from Pope Pius XI came to Mons. Boppel in March, 1931 when he was made a domestic prelate with the title of Right Reverend Monsignor. In 1932 he became the Chancellor of the Diocese of Rochester under Bishop John P. O'Hern and served in that position for four years. He was named the delegate in charge of all religious in the diocese in January, 1936.

Testifying to the love and respect that all the people of St. Boniface have had for their pastor, the September issue of the parish paper, "Boniface," said of Monsignor Boppel: "Every parishioner upon hearing the sad news of Father Boppel's death had only one thing to say: 'There was truly a fine man and a good priest.'"

Mon. Boppel's bearers were: Rev. Eugene Golding, George J. Schmitt, E. Charles Bauer, Theodore J. Winterboth, William F. Frank, Albert J. Geiger, Gerard Amann, Joseph E. Vogt.
