to Auburn for his sixth lecture under the auspices of the Lyceum Players of St. Many's Church liner. Sheen's address last year, entitled The Signs of the Times, draw the largest sudience in the history of the Emerson the history of the Emerson Auditorium.

The subject for this year's lecture is significant because of recent rational problicity about psychiatry and religion in which hism. Sheen was subject critical in Magr. Sheen claimed that his statements on Freddianism as slatements on Freudanian as contained in a sermen given in St. Patrick's Cathedral, New York City during Lant, were dis-torted and mishiterpreted.

"I did not make any criticisms of psychiatry nor of the psychoanalytical mothods in general Magn. Sheen said in explaining the sense of his Lenten sermon I am a spokesman for the Catholic Church when I say that any positive denial of airs an the part of Freudian psychoanilysis renders that science inadequate for the handling of problems which affect the whole man.

Tickets for the fecture are being distributed by a large com-mittee headed by Stiss Joan Scal ion with Mrs. Carroll Caffrey and Miss Sarah liynes as co-chair-men. They are also on sale at several downtown Auburn stores. ning of the fecture.
