Annual clambake of Holy Family Rosary Society will be held Thursday, Sept. 25 at 8 p. m. in the school auditorium. Mrs. Helen Veits is in charge of tickets. Reservations may be made by calling Gen. 5386 or Gen. 7435-R. Tickets are $2.25.

First meeting of the season for the Rosary Society was held last week with a nominating committee being appointed to select candidates for the annual election of officers in October. Mrs. Loreta Sabers was appointed chairman, assisted by Mesdames Helen Veits, Marie Donnelly, Hilda Miller and Miss Louise Menning.

The Society is also sponsoring a drive for food and clothing for the destitute people of Germany in answer to their many letters of appeal to His Excellency, Bishop Kearney. Donations may be sent to Holy Family rectory where they will be sorted and packed by a committee.

KC League Opens Bowling Season

Under the direction of Joseph B. Rooney, the Knights of Columbus Bowling League opened its 36th annual season last week at Columbus Civic Center alleys.

Assisting Rooney this year is his staff of Vernon J. Hicks, Vice-President, Bill Staub, Secretary, Treasurer and Jack Graham, Assistant Secretary.

During the festivities of the opening night the pressure was on Deputy Grand Knight, Ray Nary, who was designated to roll the first ball on the 9:30 shift. Earlier, on the 7 o'clock shift, Grand Knight John Kinney struck a perfect 13 hit.

Brother Joe Garlin's newly decorated Columbus Civic Center establishment brought many favorable comments.

Ithaca Church Starts Classes For Converts

Ithaca - An "Inquirers' Class" for non-Catholics seeking instruction in the Catholic faith will begin at Immaculate Conception Church on Monday evening, (Sept. 22) at 7:45, under the direction of Rev. Vincent P. Collins.

This will be the third instruction class organized in the parish in the past year. Last Fall 40 members, both Catholics and non-Catholics attended classes directed by the Rev. J. John Hedges. The 16 weeks' course attracted such popular attention and gained so many converts that it was repeated in the spring. Men and women interested in the instruction course, are eager to recommend it to their non-Catholic friends and are asked to call Father Collins at the Rectory.
