Catholic Women's Club Sets St. John Ladies' Party

Areawide Drive for Members Planned for Benefit Fund

Membership Drive of the Rochester Catholic Women's Club will open with a luncheon at the Chatterbox Club, tomorrow (Friday, Sept. 19) at 12:30 p. m. Mrs. Ronald J. McDonald, membership chairman, will assign cards and instruct the workers who will canvass every parish in Rochester and suburbs for renewals and new members.

Mrs. Louis A. Whalen, president, extends an invitation to all Catholic women from outside town who are residing in Rochester, to join and participate in the various activities. The club owns and operates the group clubhouse, on Alexander street, where take place the social functions, such as bridges, luncheons and book reviews. Members are given the opportunity to hear many prominent speakers discuss the current issues of the day. One of these will be Mrs. James F. Looney, chairman of the St. John Ladies' Party, International Federation of Catholic Women, who will come to Rochester November 17.

The club awards four high school scholarships to girls, two to St. Elizabeth's Academy and two to Our Lady of Mercy High School. The organization also sponsors the scout troops, outstanding spiritual event of the year is the Day of Recollection. Camp Madonna, located on Canandaigua Lake has been successfully maintained by the Catholic Women's Club for over 23 years.

Many groups are available within the club for any member interested, such as Business Women's Group, who elect their own officers and conduct supper meetings, also sponsors a breakfast during the year which is held outdoors, usually at the park, besides a great deal of charitable work especially at Christmas; Mission group, who serves for various missions and performs many outstanding deeds.

ASSISTING MRS. McDONALD in the membership campaign will be the following committees: Mesdames: Alois J. Bossett, Louis A. Bowlin, Clarence J. Heauch, George H. Cannan, Charles G. Cornell, Carl E. Cassell, Leonard G. Currier, Joseph A. Bailey, V. Gordon, Duffy, Francis D. Duggan, John A. DeLuzian, Charles J. DuTocher.
