

Bishop Blesses Editor's Family

Following celebration Saturday of the 25th wedding anniversary Mass of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. O'Connor, His Excellency Bishop Kearney poses with the jubilarians and their family, which includes six sons and one daughter. Seated, the Bishop and Mr. and Mrs. O'Connor, the photo includes (front row) Helen and James; (second row) Jack, Thomas, Jr., Leo, Robert and Richard. Mr. O'Connor is the veteran news editor of the Catholic Courier-Journal. He and his family are members of the Sacred Heart Parish.

St. Joseph's School Grows

A sharp rise in registration was noted at St. Joseph's School, opened its doors for the third year with a record 122 pupils, a 77 per cent increase over last year.

Continuous growth of the grammar school since its opening in September, 1945, made it necessary this year to add another grade, the seventh. The kindergarten, expanded by the influx of the first crop of war babies, was forced to move to larger quarters taking over a meeting room building at 305 Hudson Ave.

One of the new members of the teaching staff, Sister Bonaventura, will also take over the principal's duties, relieving Sister Aloysius, who was transferred to Wilkes-Barre. Other newcomers are Sister Aurelia and Sister Damina.

The staff now counts five teaching Sisters Servants of Mary Immaculate including Sister Copprian, and Sister Bridgette.

Knights of Equity Name Rochesterians

Three Rochester men were elected to national offices in the Knights of Equity at the national convention in Toledo Saturday.

Rev. Roy B. Morphy, assistant pastor of Corpus Christi, was re-elected supreme chaplain at the same time.

The new officers are: Supreme Knight Michael T. Ryan, Supreme Treasurer Christopher A. Delanty and Supreme Secretary Thomas L. Davly.
