Faith as Basis for Boy Scout Training Told at Diocesan Rally

"If you are faithful in your duties to your Church, we have no fear of your fidelity to the Boy Scouts," His Excellency, Bishop Kearney told more than 500 Boy Scouts from various sections of the diocese in a rally Sunday, sponsored by the Catholic League Committee on Scouting.

The rally, held at Edgemoor Park, demonstrated the progress made in Catholic Scouting by the Bishop's Committee since organized in February. Seven new units were inducted by the Bishop who also presented Ad Altare Dei crosses to 33 Scouts.

The Bishop in explaining why the Catholic program of scouting had been launched recalled the letter of Commander Shea to his son during the war. Commander Shea had written his son: "You are a Catholic. Be a good Catholic, because if you are you will be a good American."

Bishop Kearney told the boys if they are good Catholics they will be good Boy Scouts.

STATESMEN OF the world were called upon to consider the recent World Boy Scout jamboree in France by the Rev. Frederick P. Gehring, C.M., ex-chaplain of the Navy and known as "The Goodwill Ambassador" for exploits in the Pacific fighting.

"Why can't statesmen take lessons from these Boy Scouts of the world who were not ashamed to bring God into their assemblies?" Father Gehring asked.

The priest who was "Father" to boys of all creeds in the Pacific told of the example given by boys of strong Catholic faith on the battlefield.

"If you live up to your Catholic faith, you'll do the right thing," he told the Scouts.

The ceremony took place at the Edgemoor Park grounds and was attended by many parents and friends who witnessed with pride the induction of the Blessed Sacrament. Bishop Kearney officiating. The Rev. Dr. William Byrne of Phaea was deacon and the Rev. George Schmitt subdeacon. The Rev. Dr. John E. Maney was master of ceremonies. About 20 parades.

Sense of Guilt Causes Mental Turmoil, Monsignor Sheen Tells 1,500 in Auburn

The Budget Committee for Auburn's 1947-1948 Community Chest Campaign met in a building on amounts needed. The committee (from left) William Bryson, assistant treasurer of the chest; William Bouley, treasurer; George T. Arnold, executive secretary; and the Rev. Dr. William E. Cowan, chairman of the budget committee.

Auburn — The spiritual cause of the mental anguish of the modern world and the mental anguish of the modern world is a sense of guilt, Monsignor Sheen told a rapidly crowded lecture hall at East High School Sunday morning.

People are trying to run away from themselves, Monsignor Sheen said. Their guilty consciences make them feel that they are not living with their own consciences. In their anxiety to be relieved of their guilt and sorrow, they are running in greater anguish than they are in their present state.

Monsignor Sheen in his visit to Auburn under the auspices of the Lyceum Program of St. Mary's Church, was accompanied by William Bouley, treasurer of the chest; George T. Arnold, executive secretary; and the Rev. Dr. William E. Cowan, chairman of the budget committee.

While the large audience was assembled in the gymnasium of St. Mary's Church, Monsignor Sheen, who is a member of the Lyceum Program of St. Mary's Church, was accompanied by William Bouley, treasurer of the chest; George T. Arnold, executive secretary; and the Rev. Dr. William E. Cowan, chairman of the budget committee.
