Charity Program Is Launched by St. John Knights

At the September meeting of St. Boniface Commandery, Knights of St. John, the launching of an aggressive program of Catholic activity was announced. Initial steps call for the establishment of scholarships for the Rochester Catholic High Schools in addition to a fund to assist worthy charities.

Edgerton Park Sports Arena has been engaged for October 23, where an all-star boxing show will be presented for the purpose of raising funds.

The card of six bouts will have, among others, such local favorites as Harold Jones, Harry (Snuffy) Smith, Johnny Deane, and Jimmy Davenport in eight round bouts.

Peter Provenzano's Athletic Club organization is assisting in the arrangements.

Leo G. Rosenfeld is general chairman and is assisted by H. Raymond Curtis, chairman of tickets; Edwin T. Morris, chairman of programs and John Curran, chairman of publicity.

The committee invites the public to support "this worthy cause." Tickets can be obtained at Adam Hat Store. For advance reservations call Stone 6333.
