Antarctic Mass

The first Mass ever celebrated on the Antarctic continent was offered on the mainland of Ross Island, February 16, 1947, by Rev. Victor J. Madigan, chaplain of the Operation "Highjump." It was offered in the snow hall erected on the icecap overlook the Bay of Whales. The text for the sermon was taken from St. Paul's Epistle to the Romans: "I am debtor to the Greeks and to the barbarians, to the wise and to the unwise. So my God through Jesus Christ for all of you, because your faith is proclaimed all over the world."

"Going therefore Teach Ye All Nations, Baptizing Them in the Name of the Father, Son and Holy Ghost."
