WHAT FATHER GANNON recase is readily seen if we look in any dictionary. Telerance, as the dictionary explains. means to endure something, to bear up under tribulation, to suffer. But who wants to be suffered by his neighbors' Who wants his tellow citizens to regard him the same way they do a rain storm, patiently and resignedly? It is very painhi for any of us to enter a group where we are only tol

Father Gannon is right when he says that tolerance is the lowest form of social intercourse. And the acid-tongued lourialist, Mr Westbrook, Pegier, is right when he describes tolerance as "lace-curtain snob

THE NEGRO is one of the greatest victims of that refined style of persecution which we Americans delicately call toi erance. We tolerate Negroes by herding them into the filthiest corpers of our cities W. toler ate the Negro as long as he stages in the ghelto which the white advocates of togerance have appointed for him-

No doubt, the pleaders for tolerance are well meaning but it is difficult to figure out what they mean when they urge more tolerance among Cathotics, Jews and Protestants. It will be a sad day for America if Catholics. Protestants and Jews ever come to the point where they are content only to put up with one another. And this is exactly what tolerance suffering something you dislike or even dispise!

AS WE SEE II practiced here in America today ' Jerance is only a shoddy unitation of Christian charity It is a bitter burlesque of what Christ called the Second Greatest Command "love your neighbar as yourself!"

If we are ever going to remove social, religious and racial tension from American soriety then we must do some thing more than merely toler are each other. We must re spect one another as human beings invested with a God-given dignity. None of us wants to Forum on Reds be merely tolerated like a stray doz wandering into the kitchen. Ali of us, regardless of tage. plor or creed, have a right to be treated as creatures made in the image and likeness of

THE PLEADERS FOR toler ance not only uige us to be tolerant about each other's per son but also urge us to be tolerant about each other's ideas. and convictions. For example, t: is frequently suggested that Catholies should be tolerant of about doctrines which they believe to be false

This stupid proposal asks us to be tolerant in the face of errors. How can we Catholics who believe that Christ is God smile benignly on the doctrine which says that he is only a mere man? To ask us to tolerate a denial of Christ's divinity is to misuit our intellectual integrity

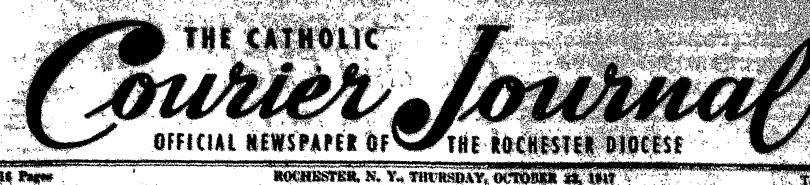

TRUTH IS ALWAYS mtolcrant of error. And in the matter of religious doctrine Catholies are always intolerant of the truth. To ask a man to tolerate what he believes is false is to ask him to stultify his inintelligence

There is nothing inconsistent in the Catholic's position which respects his neighbor's rights but does not tolerate his neighbor's religion. Love of our neighbor does not obligate us to sympathize with our neighbor's religion or his politics.

EVEN OUR PROFESSION AL pleaders for iderance, of course, should be able to understand that they cannot defend cruth without being intolerant of error As a matter of fact. we must all be intolerant when we enter on the great battleground of truth and error

We who believe in the democratic philosophy of the American Constitution will not abide the state socialism of Hitler's Mein Kampt. Our scientifica"; trained physicians are scornful of quack medical practices.

IF CATHOLICS are more in tolerant in religious matters than their fellow citizens it does not mean that Catholics do not love their fellow citizens. It means that Catholics love truth and also their neighbor it means that Catholics lave their neighbor enough to tell him the truth!

DeGaulle's Anti-Red

Paris - (AC) - The sensational results of the nationwide French municipal elections last Sunday will, no doubt, have far reaching consequences for the general political situation in France.

Under normal circumstances, he purpose of the ballot would have been the election of municipal administrations for the next six years; but, in response to the appeal sounded by Gen. Charles deGaulle, the French electorate has cast everywhere a purely pyltical vote

The Rassemblement du Pouplo rancols" the Rally of the rench People RPF) which was founded by General deffaulte only six months ago, has achieved an overwhelming success. There will be a defauillist majority in the Paris municipal council, in which Communists and Socialists had a majority since the city's liberation in 1944. Pierre de l Gaulle, brother of the general, is expected to be nominated president of the council.
