

Adoration Men List Judge Fenerty Predicts Red Abetted Strike

Rochester Nocturnal Adoration Society, at its annual Sunday evening Holy Hour on the Feast of Christ the King, Sunday, Oct. 26 will have as its guest speaker, the Rev. George Legere, S.S.S., National Director of the Nocturnal Adoration Society in the United States, according to Secretary Joseph W. Beane.

Women's Public Speaking Course Listed by DCCW

A new course in public speaking will be offered by the Speakers' Bureau of the Diocesan Council of Catholic Women starting Friday, Oct. 24, at 8:15 p. m. in Old St. Mary's School hall.

The weekly series will feature talks on the Mass by the Rev. Albert J. Shannon, Diocesan Moderator, DCCW, and the Rev. John T. Callahan, Deanery Moderator, illustrated by slides.

Friday's meeting will also present a talk by Miss Marion Schantz, teacher of public speaking.

Members of the bureau will be given the opportunity to choose their own topics for this year's course of eight weeks. New members will be welcomed. Information may be obtained from Mrs. Arthur P. Farren, chairman of the Speakers' Bureau (Glenn 52133).

Speakers from the DCCW group and their topics for next week are: Mrs. Elmer Lortz, "Shrines in the Home," Sunday, Oct. 26; St. Patrick's Rosary Society, "Prayer and the Rosary," Sunday, Oct. 27; Mrs. Arthur P. Farren, "Prayer and the Rosary," Sunday, Oct. 28; L.C.B.A. Advisory Senate, Oct. 29.

St. Dominic Group Sets Day's Devotion

The Rev. John J. Hartnett, O.P., will conduct a Day of Devotion for the members of the Third Order of St. Dominic on the Feast of Christ the King, Sunday, Oct. 26.

Exercises will begin at 9:30 a. m. and continue through to 6 p. m. in the chapel of St. Andrew's Seminary. The program has listed two conferences in the morning at 10 and 12, one in the afternoon at 3. There will also be a Holy Hour from 5 to 6. Father Hartnett will receive new members and profess novices.

Women's Public Speaking Course Listed by DCCW

The Holy Hour will be held in St. Ambrose Church, Empire Blvd.

Father Legere is editor of The Sentinel of the Blessed Sacrament, official organ of the Nocturnal Adoration Society and the Peoples' Eucharistic League.

National Headquarters is located at the Church of St. Jean Baptiste, Lexington Ave. at 76th St., New York City, conducted by the Blessed Sacrament Fathers, under whose patronage the Nocturnal Adoration Society in America was inaugurated at the direction of the Vatican.

The Sunday evening Holy Hour which commences at 8:00 p. m., is held in a different parish church each year at the invitation of the pastor.

Secretary, Benn, in accepting the invitation of Rev. Frank W. Mason, pastor of St. Ambrose, in turn invited especially all the men of the parish to attend this evening vigil in order that they might become acquainted with the nature of this strictly spiritual men's organization.

A business meeting only one of the year will be held in the school hall following the Holy Hour. The business of this meeting will consist of election of officers and a report of the secretary.

The regular monthly all-night vigil for October will be held at St. Patrick's Church as usual on Saturday, Oct. 25, commencing at 10:00 p. m.

Catholic Nurses List Breakfast

Rochester Council of Catholic Nurses will hold its annual Communion Breakfast on Sunday, Oct. 26, in St. Patrick's School hall on Plymouth Ave. North at Brown St.

The Holy Sacrifice of the Mass will be celebrated at 8:30 a. m. in St. Patrick's Church and the breakfast will follow immediately. His Excellency Bishop Kearney will be guest of honor at the breakfast.

Christopher Movement Aims Told

Rev. James M. Keller, M.M., who came from Maryknoll to address Diocesan Council of Catholic Women's convention on Christopher movement, which he founded, confers with Mrs. Frank Curtin, retiring DCCW president, and Mrs. Harriet Schuyler, president, Mother Cabrini Circle, DCCW, at Seneca Hotel.

A charge that the Soviet Union is planning to "sabotage America by causing a general transportation strike in the near future," was brought by Judge C. G. Fenerty of the Philadelphia Court of Common Pleas, lecturing at Aquinas Institute Sunday evening.

Second speaker of the current Christian Culture Lecture Series, Judge Fenerty lashed out at "Red Fascist" Communism and the "gangster mob" who run "Stalinist Russia."

"Stalinist Russia today," the orator declared, "is a gigantic concentration camp surrounded by barbed wire and armed guards."

The machine guns face Russia. It is a dark continent, devoid of religion, rampant with superstition, completely isolated from the rest of the world, with only occasional short circuit flashes throwing light on the horror and misery and despair within.

HE DESCRIBED graphically the "unspeakable delectation, hunger and oppression" of 7,000,000 Russians deported or detained in prisons. In Russia, he asserted, there is no free labor, no minimum wage law, no labor unions, no collective bargaining.

Explaining that the new order of Communism is only the "old lust of empire," he labeled it variously "confusion," "retrogression," and reaction, "chaos and subjugation," "perversion and barbarism," "Asiatic absolutism," "Totalitarian terrorism," "inhuman and murderous Red militarism."

He called attention to the fact that the Communists are openly taking the leadership in fomenting and encouraging strikes and making "every treasonable effort so that soldiers and sailors can be won for the revolution."

"These Red enemies of the Republic attempt to sow hatred among the citizens of this Republic by arraying man against man, race against race, creed against creed," stated the speaker, who is a past commander of the Catholic War Veterans.

Christopher Movement Aims Told

Rev. James M. Keller, M.M., who came from Maryknoll to address Diocesan Council of Catholic Women's convention on Christopher movement, which he founded, confers with Mrs. Frank Curtin, retiring DCCW president, and Mrs. Harriet Schuyler, president, Mother Cabrini Circle, DCCW, at Seneca Hotel.

Family Uplift by 4-Point Program Set By DCCW at Annual Diocesan Convention

By MARY CAREY

A four-point program to propagate sanctity and integrity in family life was launched by the Diocesan Council of Catholic Women convening in Rochester last Thursday at the Seneca Hotel.

A panel discussion presided over by the Rev. John T. Callahan, Rochester Deanery moderator, presented an outline of the four positive means which Council activity will employ in furthering the restoration of dignity to family life. The points covered were preparation for marriage, post marriage retreats, selection of reading, and religious shrines in the home.

Speakers and their topics were: Mrs. Arthur P. Farren, director of the DCCW, Speakers' Bureau, Pre-Cana Conferences; Mrs. Lawrence P. Weiss, Cans Conferences; Miss Marion Schantz, Role of Books in Family Life; Mrs. Elmer Lortz, Shrines in the Home.

REYNOLDS OF the Council's 1948 project was sounded by Bishop James E. Kearney, who celebrated a low Mass in Old St. Mary's Church in honor of Our Lady of Good Counsel.

Comparing the sanctity of the home to the sanctuary of God, Bishop Kearney declared: "Outside of the sanctuary of God there should be no holier spot than the sanctuary of the home."

The Bishop recommended prayer with particular emphasis on the rosary and frequent reception of the Sacraments, as the best means of insuring sanctity in the home.

Calling attention to a "national conscience" that the home must be restored to a place of honor, he stated: "We have reached a state where it is thought necessary to propagate the home."

HE CONGRATULATED the Catholic women's organization on its efforts in behalf of the family and told them: "You yourselves are the decisive factor in determining the future of the family." He invoked the continued guidance and inspiration of Our Lady of Good Counsel.

Assisting the Bishop at Mass were the Rev. Dr. John E. Manney and the Rev. John T. Callahan.

$125,000 Drive Set For Lourdes Building

An all out effort to raise $125,000 for the building of a new school has been announced by the Building Fund Committee of Our Lady of Lourdes Church, to be held from Nov. 14 to Nov. 24.

General chairman for the Building Fund Committee are: Mrs. Francis W. Luddy, pastor, and Rev. James A. Blatter, assistant pastor. Paul A. McGuire has been appointed general chairman of the Building Fund Committee with Mrs. James J. Stafford, and Mrs. Oliver Conkch, as chairman and vice-chairman respectively of the Women's Division.

The executive committee has: Harold J. Coleman as its chairman with Donald H. Barker, Joseph E. Gore, Theodore St. Louis, and Arthur C. Lohman.

The special gifts committee, under the chairmanship of Martin T. Gullen, is at present actively engaged in soliciting pledges of the prospects assigned to this committee. They hope to complete their work by Monday, Oct. 27. Joseph J. Myer is treasurer of the Building Fund Committee. Other committee members will be announced at a later date.

Infant Novena At Old St. Mary's

Third annual Christmas Novena in honor of the Infant Jesus of Prague will be conducted each Tuesday evening at Old St. Mary's Church, Washington Park, beginning Tuesday, Oct. 28.

The Novena has been attracting more of the devout each year and a large crowd is expected at the fourth year begins.

General intention for the Novena, this year will be "Immaculate," according to the Rev. Dr. George F. Kottel, pastor of Old St. Mary's.

Persons living outside of the city or unable to make the Novena may send their petitions to Old St. Mary's Rectory, 12 South St., Rochester.

SECTORY: The Novena has been attracting more of the devout each year and a large crowd is expected at the fourth year begins.

Persons living outside of the city or unable to make the Novena may send their petitions to Old St. Mary's Rectory, 12 South St., Rochester.

SECTORY: The Novena has been attracting more of the devout each year and a large crowd is expected at the fourth year begins.

Persons living outside of the city or unable to make the Novena may send their petitions to Old St. Mary's Rectory, 12 South St., Rochester.

SECTORY: The Novena has been attracting more of the devout each year and a large crowd is expected at the fourth year begins.

Persons living outside of the city or unable to make the Novena may send their petitions to Old St. Mary's Rectory, 12 South St., Rochester.

SECTORY: The Novena has been attracting more of the devout each year and a large crowd is expected at the fourth year begins.

Persons living outside of the city or unable to make the Novena may send their petitions to Old St. Mary's Rectory, 12 South St., Rochester.

SECTORY: The Novena has been attracting more of the devout each year and a large crowd is expected at the fourth year begins.

Persons living outside of the city or unable to make the Novena may send their petitions to Old St. Mary's Rectory, 12 South St., Rochester.

SECTORY: The Novena has been attracting more of the devout each year and a large crowd is expected at the fourth year begins.

Persons living outside of the city or unable to make the Novena may send their petitions to Old St. Mary's Rectory, 12 South St., Rochester.

SECTORY: The Novena has been attracting more of the devout each year and a large crowd is expected at the fourth year begins.

Persons living outside of the city or unable to make the Novena may send their petitions to Old St. Mary's Rectory, 12 South St., Rochester.

SECTORY: The Novena has been attracting more of the devout each year and a large crowd is expected at the fourth year begins.

Persons living outside of the city or unable to make the Novena may send their petitions to Old St. Mary's Rectory, 12 South St., Rochester.

SECTORY: The Novena has been attracting more of the devout each year and a large crowd is expected at the fourth year begins.

Persons living outside of the city or unable to make the Novena may send their petitions to Old St. Mary's Rectory, 12 South St., Rochester.

SECTORY: The Novena has been attracting more of the devout each year and a large crowd is expected at the fourth year begins.

Persons living outside of the city or unable to make the Novena may send their petitions to Old St. Mary's Rectory, 12 South St., Rochester.

SECTORY: The Novena has been attracting more of the devout each year and a large crowd is expected at the fourth year begins.

Persons living outside of the city or unable to make the Novena may send their petitions to Old St. Mary's Rectory, 12 South St., Rochester.

SECTORY: The Novena has been attracting more of the devout each year and a large crowd is expected at the fourth year begins.

Persons living outside of the city or unable to make the Novena may send their petitions to Old St. Mary's Rectory, 12 South St., Rochester.

SECTORY: The Novena has been attracting more of the devout each year and a large crowd is expected at the fourth year begins.

Persons living outside of the city or unable to make the Novena may send their petitions to Old St. Mary's Rectory, 12 South St., Rochester.

SECTORY: The Novena has been attracting more of the devout each year and a large crowd is expected at the fourth year begins.

Persons living outside of the city or unable to make the Novena may send their petitions to Old St. Mary's Rectory, 12 South St., Rochester.

SECTORY: The Novena has been attracting more of the devout each year and a large crowd is expected at the fourth year begins.

Persons living outside of the city or unable to make the Novena may send their petitions to Old St. Mary's Rectory, 12 South St., Rochester.

SECTORY: The Novena has been attracting more of the devout each year and a large crowd is expected at the fourth year begins.

Persons living outside of the city or unable to make the Novena may send their petitions to Old St. Mary's Rectory, 12 South St., Rochester.

SECTORY: The Novena has been attracting more of the devout each year and a large crowd is expected at the fourth year begins.

Persons living outside of the city or unable to make the Novena may send their petitions to Old St. Mary's Rectory, 12 South St., Rochester.

SECTORY: The Novena has been attracting more of the devout each year and a large crowd is expected at the fourth year begins.

Persons living outside of the city or unable to make the Novena may send their petitions to Old St. Mary's Rectory, 12 South St., Rochester.

SECTORY: The Novena has been attracting more of the devout each year and a large crowd is expected at the fourth year begins.

Persons living outside of the city or unable to make the Novena may send their petitions to Old St. Mary's Rectory, 12 South St., Rochester.

SECTORY: The Novena has been attracting more of the devout each year and a large crowd is expected at the fourth year begins.

Persons living outside of the city or unable to make the Novena may send their petitions to Old St. Mary's Rectory, 12 South St., Rochester.

SECTORY: The Novena has been attracting more of the devout each year and a large crowd is expected at the fourth year begins.

Persons living outside of the city or unable to make the Novena may send their petitions to Old St. Mary's Rectory, 12 South St., Rochester.

SECTORY: The Novena has been attracting more of the devout each year and a large crowd is expected at the fourth year begins.

Persons living outside of the city or unable to make the Novena may send their petitions to Old St. Mary's Rectory, 12 South St., Rochester.

SECTORY: The Novena has been attracting more of the devout each year and a large crowd is expected at the fourth year begins.

Persons living outside of the city or unable to make the Novena may send their petitions to Old St. Mary's Rectory, 12 South St., Rochester.

SECTORY: The Novena has been attracting more of the devout each year and a large crowd is expected at the fourth year begins.

Persons living outside of the city or unable to make the Novena may send their petitions to Old St. Mary's Rectory, 12 South St., Rochester.

SECTORY: The Novena has been attracting more of the devout each year and a large crowd is expected at the fourth year begins.

Persons living outside of the city or unable to make the Novena may send their petitions to Old St. Mary's Rectory, 12 South St., Rochester.

SECTORY: The Novena has been attracting more of the devout each year and a large crowd is expected at the fourth year begins.

Persons living outside of the city or unable to make the Novena may send their petitions to Old St. Mary's Rectory, 12 South St., Rochester.

SECTORY: The Novena has been attracting more of the devout each year and a large crowd is expected at the fourth year begins.

Persons living outside of the city or unable to make the Novena may send their petitions to Old St. Mary's Rectory, 12 South St., Rochester.

SECTORY: The Novena has been attracting more of the devout each year and a large crowd is expected at the fourth year begins.