Japanese Converts Twice Pre-War Mark

By REV. PATRICK O'CONNOR, S.S.C.

Tokyo — (NC) — Indicating the current tempo of the movement towards the Church in Japan, latest statistics from Japanese dioceses show last year's adult conversions to be more than twice those of the normal pre-war year of 1938, while the number of persons under instruction is nearly five times that of 1938.

The highest total of conversions is reported from Tokyo, where 943 adults were baptized last year, as against 420 in 1938, while catechumens (persons under instruction for Baptism) numbered 2,222 as against 498 in 1938. (The year in each case runs from July 1 to the following June 30.)

Atsugawa-bombing Hiroshima, stated by Japanese and German Jesuits, shows adult baptisms multiplied by five and catechumens multiplied by six as compared with 1938.

The following totals represent nine dioceses from which complete figures are available:

(The close of the war and the first post war months are included in the 1946 figures.)

THE 1947 FIGURES prove the definite change in religious prospects in Japan. The tide has turned in favor of Christianity, but it is still a tide, rather than a tidal wave. Church leaders here point out that there has been no wholesale indiscriminate intake of new converts.

Various factors have slowed down the rate of Baptism. First and greatest has been the heart-breaking shortage of missionary priests, Brothers and Sisters. Wartime destruction of churches and schools has diminished the number of convenient instruction centers. Transportation and economic difficulties make it hard for Japanese to journey across cities to frequent instruction.

Another retarding factor has been the tradition of individual instruction for each person in Japan. When conversions were a mere handful, this system was practicable and its obvious advantages were not excessively costly in missionary time. Mission leaders here see that it is not warranted under present conditions.

CATHOLIC AUTHORITIES here say that no estimate can be made yet of the Catholic population of any diocese, much less of all Japan. Japanese Catholics were mostly in the cities which were nearly all heavily bombed. Many of the people were dispersed. Some are still in the country districts. Some have returned to the cities but not to their former neighborhoods.

The exact number of Catholic casualties from air-raids and from sickness and exposure as refugees during and after hostilities is not known. Probably of Japan is about 120,000.

Miscellaneous Protestant denominations probably have a total of 200,000 members. I am informed by Protestant officials that the recent figure of 2,000,000 mentioned by Dr. Kagawa, prominent Japanese Protestant, was misunderstood. It represents an estimate of "sympathizers," not members.

During November, enroll a loved one departed in our Purgatorial Society of Masses. The offering is twenty dollars. Why not inquire about our plan to have the Gregorian Masses offered after your death?

CAN YOU SPELL IT? Yucca Ghebreghabier has a difficult name, but he is a highly favored young man studying for the priesthood in the Seminary of Cherson, East Africa. Twenty-two years old, with five years to study, he will need five hundred dollars for his expenses. Can you adopt this poor boy?

NOVEMBER 4 On the feast of St. Charles we must appeal for those Sisters of St. Charles at Alexandria, Egypt, and their home for the aged. Perhaps you will want to help us to send them two hundred dollars before Christmas.

SPECIAL PICTURE Father Daniel, pastor of St. George's Church in the little town of San Giorgio, Albania in Southern Italy, needs a picture of Our Lady for his chapel. Can you give fifty dollars for a beautiful one?

CHILDREN HUNGRY Two hundred little orphan children in the care of the Sisters of the Immaculate Conception in Aleppo, Syria, are hungry. For only six dollars we can feed one of them for a month. Won't you add a mite for ORPHANS' BREAD?

MOST ABANDONED Do you ever have Mass offered for the most abandoned soul in Purgatory, with no one on earth to remember him? Mass offerings help poor missionaries.

INTEREST APLENTY Those who make a deposit in "MARY'S BANK" for our dear Near East Sisters receive interest aplenty — the powerful prayers of these consecrated daughters of Our Lady.

JUST ASK Write in for our circular. In colors describing the Gift Card you may send to friends at Christmas.

Trieste Prelate Confirms Yugoslavs In Secret

(The following dispatch was written on Sept. 15, "E-Day" in Trieste, when the new Italian-Yugoslav boundary was made effective. It has been delayed in transit, but depicts a situation of tension and deep conflict that still obtains.)

By REV. PAUL HUSSARD,
Editor, The Catholic Digest

Trieste — (NC) — In the streets of this city this afternoon, crowds move with dismay and bitterness in their faces. All stores are closed and shuttered, military police are on patrol, groups of blue-shirted Yugoslav Communists are gathered.

Minor disturbances have occurred a Jug (Yugoslav Communist) hit an Italian in the face with a spade; a group of Jugos peited four military police in a jeep with rotten tomatoes. (The M.P.'s are under orders not to retaliate.)

In the Archdiocese of Trieste all priests remain at their posts, but practically all the priests from the neighboring dioceses of Gorizia and Pola have fled. Had they stayed they would have been subjected to the usual Communist procedure of torment, prison and death. Many of them have come to the comparative safety of Trieste; others have gone to safer parts of Italy.

I ASKED the Archbishop of Trieste what he thought of the recent report of Protestant ministers in which it was stated there was no religious persecution in Yugoslavia. He said he thinks it was one of the greatest untruths ever to have been printed.

In the territory which came under control of the Yugoslav Communists at the end of the war, priests actively is restricted to the celebration of Mass. They are not allowed to preach, nor to teach catechism. Those who dared disobey were imprisoned. Refractory are no longer preached. Catholic Action is only a memory and even the St. Vincent de Paul societies have been disbanded.

THE CHURCHES are filled with people praying that God will avert the calamity which is upon them. Priests were begged by their people to obey the regulations and not to preach so that they would not be taken away. But now it has come upon them.

For the past few months the Archbishop of Trieste has confirmed as often as eight or nine times a day. That was necessary because groups of Yugoslavs came in secret across the line — and in secret to be confirmed. Any time you could see Yugoslav Catholics weeping after confirmation for what had come over their country.

I suggested that it would be unwise to publish that fact. He said it would make no difference, because he had confirmed the last group at eight o'clock this morning, and now the border was closed. That last group had no idea how they would manage to get back home. They had come anyhow.

Charlemagne Church Found Near Paris

Paris — A Yale University professor has found ruins below the twelfth century Basilica of St. Denis, near here, which are believed to be part of a church built during the era of Charles the Great (Charlemagne), who ruled during the late eighth and early ninth centuries.

Relics of St. Denis, first Bishop of Paris, and of St. Rusticus and St. Eleutherius are supposed to have been kept in this church. Summer Crosby, the professor, and his collaborators found bases of large pillars in the ruins, and several sarcophagi.

Dunsmuir — (NC) — Six lively, energetic boys, ranging in age from seven to 10 years from St. Mary's Catholic Orphanage, Dubuque, are helping University of Iowa researchers determine the nutritional value of rice in a study which has international importance.

Near East Missions

Francis Cardinal Spellman, President
Very Rev. Thomas J. McMahon, S.T.D., National Secretary
Rev. Andrew H. Regan, S.T.L., Assistant Secretary

Bicycle Built For Two
Father Daniel and Father George, two Franciscan missionaries recently expelled from Albania by the Reds, are now missionaries among the very poor people of the hill towns of Southern Italy. Can you give twenty-five dollars to provide them with a bicycle?

HERE'S A SURPRISE! Do you know that we have missions even in Southern Italy and Sicily? Our priests work among fifty thousand so-called "Italo-Albanians" and their recent pleas for help equal anything we have ever heard. Listen to Father John Charles, a Franciscan Father expelled from Albania, now in charge of the little mission of Casalnuovo (Lucania).

When I arrived here, I took up quarters in a cell of the local jail. I had no choice. I slept on a little straw on the floor for a week. "Finally I rented a wretched little room, having to borrow a bed, mattress and linen. The owner took back the mattress the other day, so I am back to the pile of straw."

But these are creature comforts, after all. I do have to go without food, and all the rest, but by main reason for writing you is to ask for vestments, a Mass book and altar linen. Everything in the church is in the saddest condition.

Perhaps you will want to give a complete set of vestments, costing $100, to Father John Charles. Altar furnishings would cost $150, a Mass book twenty-five, altar linen ten. Please do help this poor priest.

TEN DOLLARS Ten dollars for a food package, to stem starvation, is a gift to the Mass. "I was hungry and you gave me to eat." God love you. We must feed food every month to our suffering people.

UNLESS YOU BECOME The Holy Father recently praised the spiritual childhood of St. Theresa, the Little Flower. Remember she is a Russian's patron, and in honor we intend to build the Shrine Chapel of Little Flower in Lebanon, just north of the Holy Land. Can you help us?

WRITES BISHOP CYRIL There is no other course. I must build a little chapel at Derbessie for those poor people. Won't some kind American friend help? Can you build this House of God for Bishop Cyril Zohrabian in this little Syrian town? It will cost a thousand dollars.
