3-Act Comedy, by Catholic U. Writer Opens at Nazareth

The Three-act comedy, "Stardust" by Walter Kerr of the Catholic University Drama Department is being presented by Nazareth Dramatic Club in the College Auditorium, Thursday and Friday of this week.

Nov. 6 and 7. Curtain rises at 8:30 p. m.

"Stardust" was first presented under the title "Art and Prudence" at the Catholic University Theater in Washington.

Action of the play takes place in the Dramatic School of a small university somewhere in New Hampshire at the present time. The story revolves around a visiting Broadway actress who comes to the university to get new ideas on acting and meets an eccentric student body carried away by the Stanislavsky theory.

Anno Vogt, a Sophomore, will be seen in the stellar role, Prudence Mason, the visiting actress, the part originally played by Julie Hayden, Broadway actress, who was the guest star in the premier of the Catholic University group.

Donna Francis Webb will take the part of Arthur Scott Jr., her fiance and Claire Carter, her friend, will be played by Jean McNally of Syracuse, a member of the Senior Class at the college. Marie Amatuzio of Buffalo, also a senior in the Music Department, will play the Dean of Women.

Other members of the cast are Mary Kay Donovan, Joyce Erath, Norman Gagne, Jean Ann Grey, John Leekinger, Arline Radice, Jeanne Marie Heffernan, Marie Collins, Robert Henre, Irene Cullen, Carl Hosenfeld, Monica Hurley, Joseph Holland, and Robert Schick.

The production staff includes Virginia Stenwachs stage manager, Shirley Dincher, Joanne Gervais, Lorraine Julien, Alice Minard and Jean Strachan, members of the stage crew; Elizabeth Gosling, property mistress.

The business staff is made up of Jean Sweeney, business manager; Invitations, Constance Smith; publicity, Josephine Agnello; tickets, Frances Colletta; ushers, Catherine Clark.

The public is invited to attend both performances.
