

Mother Cabrini Committee Launches Discussion Club

By MARGARET KENNEDY

We hear that the discussion club which has been started by members of Mother Cabrini Committee, is proving most interesting. The club met at the home of Mrs. James Burke on October 23. Nine members were present and Father Merida led the discussion of the book "Our Lady of Fatima." The next meeting of the group will be held at the home of Miss Mary Fitzgerald on Nov. 20.

The recreation program for the Seventh and Eighth grades at St. Nicholas and St. Peter's School is getting under way. This is a new project which members of Mother Cabrini Committee started this year. Miss Margaret Cleveland is in charge of the program which is held each week. The group has obtained a record player and recently they received a donation of $5 for the purchase of records. Margaret plans to schedule dancing classes for the students during the winter and a wide and varied recreation program will be planned.

Completed his studies, he was ordained to the Ukrainian Catholic Priesthood by the late Metropolitan Andrew Count Sheptytsky, venerable Patriarch and Martyr of the Ukrainian Catholic Church. He was exiled during World War I by the Russians but returned. During the last World War he again was made prisoner of the Russians.

TWO YEARS after his ordination, Father Downovich was called to the United States, Nov. 9, 1925, by the late Bishop Stephen Soter Ostynsky, first Bishop of the Ukrainian Catholic Diocese of the U. S. He was assigned to Cleveland, Ohio, but upon arrival there found himself without a church or congregation.
