So make sure that...includes plenty of the Vitamins...RICH YEASTIE corn bran flakes. Vitamins A and B2. Also Vitamin C, iron, calcium and phosphorus. If you've been taking Vita... and your eyes without results, try RICH YEASTIE. They contain all ...ese factors!

...Louis archdiocese, with the papal ...mendation of Archbishop Joseph E. Ritter of St. Louis as he presided here at the celebration of the centennial of the See.

The Archbishop pontificated at a Solemn Mass at St. Louis Cathedral opening the spiritual celebration of the centennial day, which fell on the Feast of Christ the King. At about the same hour in every other church and chapel in the archdiocese Masses of Reparation and Thanksgiving were offered, to make genteel the consecration of the 800,000 Catholics living in the archdiocese.

With Our Bowlers

Catholic League

Rolling 900 total in one game, H.R.A.A. No. 2 team had a big night in the Catholic League last Friday. Waltz of the N. 2 team had a 621 total for three games and two games, 203 and 225.

In the team matches, Corpus Christi defeated St. George's the first and third games. H.R.A.A. No. 2 won all three from St. John's No. 2. Immaculate No. 2 won the first and third match from St. Charles. St. Boniface keglers were two games better than Immaculate No. 1. H.R.A.A. No. 2 failed to win all three matches, losing the second to St. John's No. 1 despite the high bowling of its five members. H.R.A.A. No. 1 took the first two from St. Charles No. 2 but lost the third.

Besides Waltz, Richner and a 213 and Herman, 203. Other 200 or better scores: Pillittere, 203 and Granger, 212 of Corpus Christi; Roberts, H.R.A.A. No. 3, 203; Bernard, Immaculate No. 2, 212; Dettman, St. Boniface, 202.

Knights of Columbus

Joe Rooney's brilliant 256 single game sparked Jack Kinney's Klute five to a three-straight game victory over Bob Hand's Pinta club.

Al Woerner's Santas took three games from Paul Monigle's Columbians.

Bob Ward's 223 and a good 580 three-game total enabled Jimmy Marcille's Gulls to take a three-game win over Ray Hasenauer's Guards.

Walter Budd's 563 effort was largely responsible for the Puritans taking two out of three games from the Mutineers.

Walter Mance and Sam Insalaco snapped the Orients out of their losing streak by taking the odd game from the Voyagers.

Ed Skelly's Admirals took two out of three from "St. Bonaventure" Joe Kennedy's Pirates.

Marty Herbst's Nina aggregation was on the right side of the ledger when they took Vic Love's Christophers into camp for a two-game victory.

Rocco Natalie kept his Indian five at the top of the league by throwing in a 560 series, winning two out of three from the Knights. 500-or-over scores were registered by: Bob Ward 550, Walter Budd 563, Rocco Natalie 560, Ray Hasenauer 537, Irv. Van Slyke 546, Viggiani 545, Si Ferretti 527, Joe Rooney 519, Ed Skelly 519, Wm. Hicks 517, Larry Morrow 510, Geno Ausling 506, Dick Sullivan 506, Jiminy Marcille 505.

'Difficult Diocese' To Get New Bishop

Prague — (NC) — Archbishop Saverio Ritter, Apostolic Internuncio to Czechoslovakia, is scheduled to preside on Nov. 16 at the consecration of Bishop-elect Stephen Trochta, a Salesian Father, who has been named Ordinary of what is generally considered the most difficult diocese in the country: that of Litomerice in norther Bohemia, in the heart of the area formerly called the "Sudetenland."

In accordance with the terms of the modus vivendi concluded in 1928 between Czechoslovakia and the Holy See, Bishop-elect Trochta has taken the oath of fealty to the Republic. The oath was received by the (Communist) Prime Minister Klement Gottwald. The consecration will take place in St. Vitus Cathedral here.

Exiled Christian Brother Marks Golden Jubilee

Lafayette, La. — (NC) — Brother Arsenius, F.S.C., driven out of two countries by religious persecutions, has celebrated his 50th year as a Christian Brother. He is now visitor emeritus of the New Orleans-Santa Fe Province.

Brother Arsenius taught at a boarding school, St. Nicholas, in France. Anti-clerical laws forced him from the country and he taught in Mexico from 1910 until 1914, when persecution forced him to leave that country. He then came to the United States.
