A four-ton stone cross "To Record the Noble Deeds of Noble Men," has been crected outside St. Mary's Cathedral, Pepris, to commemorate the historic jourpey of Father Marquette and Louis Joliet and their five companions who camped on the hanks of Lake Peorle, in August, 1673, and administered the Secrement of Baptism for the first time to Illinois. The monument is also a memorial to the men of the diocese who died in World War II. (NC Photos)
