...egion of Decency Leader ...ed by Catholic Women

...Loeram, motion picture chairman, Inter-...ation of Catholic Alumnae, will come from ...ity to address the Catholic Women's Club at a dinner in Hotel Rochester, Nov. 17. Mrs. Loeram will speak on "The Legion of Decency — Its Scope and Influence."

Mrs. Louis A. Whalen, Catholic Women's Club president, has named Mrs. Ivo Hoffman chairman of the dinner, which will start at 6:30 p. m.

Mrs. Loeram's work for better motion pictures started in 1924 when she became a member of the review committee of the Motion Picture Bureau of the YCCA. In 1929 she was made New York State chairman and remained in that position until 1932, when she was made assistant chairman of the International Bureau of Motion Pictures.

In 1936 MRS. LOORAM was made international chairman, a position which she now holds. In 1936 Mrs. Loeram flew to Hollywood at the invitation of His Excellency, the late Archbishop John J. Cantwell, and remained there for over two weeks reorganizing the West Coast Committee in order that both groups might function in perfect coordination.

Mrs. Loeram has appeared and spoken at congressional and legislative hearings on motion pictures in Washington, Albany and Philadelphia.

For a period of ten years she broadcast weekly from the Paulist station on Endorsed Motion Pictures. Her talks were sent out over 30 additional stations throughout the country. During the past year she took part in a debate with Jimmie Fidler and was guest speaker on the "Hi Jinx" program.

Mrs. Loeram is a member of the Metropolitan Motion Picture Committee in the capacity of a member of their board of directors. This organization includes all the motion picture committees in New York City. She is executive member of the National Council of Jews and Christians; National Theater Conference; member of the advisory board of Student's Forum Forecast. She was awarded the Pro Ecclesia et Pontifice Cross by Pope Pius XII, in March, 1946.

Mrs. Loeram is a graduate of St. Joseph's Academy, Brentwood, L. I., and is a past president of its alumnae association. She also attended Barnard College. She is the wife of Dr. James F. Loeram and is the mother of three children.

Class Activities Mapped At Nazareth College

Three social events for classes at Nazareth College are on the program at the college. Included are the Soph Hop, the Senior-Freshmen Tea and freshmen to be entertained by sophomores.

The Class of 1950 will hold the traditional Soph Hop at Nazareth College Friday, Nov. 14, in the college auditorium. Dancing is scheduled from 9 to 12 to the music of Gene Zacher and his orchestra.

Small candle-lit tables against a background of autumn leaves will transform the auditorium into "Club Fifty" for the evening.

Co-chairmen are Shirley Archibald and Phyllis Burgess. Jeanne Lane is handling decorations, assisted by Patricia Lemm, Barbara Taylert, Rose Schubert, Catherine Coughlin, Geraldine Gersbach, Joan LeVeque, Jacqueline Burgess, Virginia O'Brien and Helen Heyer. Anne Burke, chairman of refreshments, will have as her assistants Joyce Ereth, Anne Kelly, Virginia Primer, Janet Reiss and Joan Kenning.

Publicity is in charge of Aileen Wiser, chairman; Yvonne LaBorie, Jane Murphy, Joanne O'Brien and Louise Venuto. Patricia Suits and Mary Margaret Bradley will take care of checking.

Orientation of the Freshman Class will be concluded by a social function on Sunday afternoon, Nov. 16, when the Senior Class will entertain the Freshmen at a tea on the college campus.

Miss Elaine Ringlestein is general chairman. Assisting her are Miss Marjorie Esterheld and Miss Betty Jane Gardner, refreshments; Miss Mary Agnes Calihan and Miss Mary Ellen Shea, invitations; Miss Georgianne Dailey and Miss Irene Cullen, arrangements. Guests will be received by Miss Ringlestein and Miss Noreen Carey, the Senior class president.

Sophomores will entertain prospective members of next year's Freshman class on Nov. 21 at Nazareth College. The Sub-Freshman Day, an annual occurrence at this time of the year, will consist of a tour through the school commencing about 3 p. m., followed by an entertainment and refreshments.

The entertainment will consist of brief pictures of the academic life at the college and the functions of the different departments in addition to short talks by the various officers of the Undergraduate Association, the classes, and other organizations in the school. Invitations have been issued to Catholic and public high school seniors in Rochester and the surrounding area.

The committees and their chairmen are as follows: Invitations, Beverly Salen; reception, Eileen Thaney; entertainment, Anne Predmore, refreshments, Anna Flechtuck; guide, Miriam Englert, arrangements, Patricia Flanagan.

K.C. Membership Drive Over Top, 3rd Degree Set

A class of 200 members will receive the Third or Major Degree, Knights of Columbus, Sunday afternoon, Nov. 16, in Columbus Civic Center, according to Grand Knight John J. Kinney. Degree will begin at 3 p. m.

State Deputy William E. Burke of Utica will open the degree and ritual work will be in charge of District Deputy John F. Foley of Utica. District Deputy Francis T. Toomey of Rochester will present the visiting officers and welcome visiting knights.

The degree is a culmination of the 1947 membership campaign headed by Deputy Grand Knight Raymond L. Nary. With a quota of 200, the drive went over the quota set and assures Rochester Council of a place in the supreme order's Century Club. Two high teams were captained by Clifford B. Sargent and Rocco F. Natalie and their scores were 44 new members each.

Arrangements for the degree are being handled by a committee headed by General Chairman John W. Degus. Assisting are Chairman of the House Committee Natalie and Lecturer Michael J. Schopp.

Trucking Expert Heard by Squires

Auburn—The Columbian Squires held their "Civic" meeting for November on last Sunday evening in the Water Street Hall. Guest speaker for the evening was Harold Weaver traffic manager for the Red Star Trucking Company. Mr. Weaver spoke on some interesting aspects of the trucking business.

On next Sunday evening, the Squires will be addressed by the Rev. Frank Turner, pastor of St. Bernard's church, Scipio Center. Father Turner will speak on "Our Lady of Fatima."
