Manchester, N. H. (ING) - Two New Hampshire cities, Manchester and Claremont, have banned public showings of the movie "Forever Amber," which has been condemned on moral grounds by the National Legion of Decency.

Priest Denies Minister's Report on Chefoo Reds

Shanghai (ING) - After recapture of the red report of Chefoo by nationalist forces, an unnamed Protestant minister has been quoted in press reports as saying the only instance of communist hostility to religion was the kidnapping of four Catholic priests and nuns by departing communists.

One of these victims is the Rev. Frederick As French, a Canadian priest. The Protestant minister is quoted as excusing even this communist action on the grounds that the victims were outspoken in their denunciations of communism. He added that communists seemed to want to make Chefoo another show window, like Yenan and Kalgan.

The minister's statement was issued in a judgment based upon his personal observation. Five Catholic missionaries, superiors of their missions, are still being held

Religion to Halt Reds in Poland, Ex-Envoy Avers

Religion will be the last bulwark against Communism in Poland, former American ambassador to Poland, Arthur Bliss Lane, predicted Sunday evening at Aquinas Institute in the Christian Culture lecture series.

Replying to questions during the forum following his lecture, Mr. Lane asserted he didn't believe that the Communists are trying to interfere with religion in Poland as yet.

"Of course the Church is criticized from time to time in the press. Just as the United States is criticized at times," he declared.
