These are the happenings as related by the Roy. William A. Doherty, C.SS.R., director of the Perpetual Help Novema at St Joseph's. During the 14 years he has been in charge of the Wednesday devotions, Father Dollierty has encountered countless similar incidents ascribed to the novena prayers. Many devoust people have told of cures and blessings, conversions and reformations, and every kind of temporal favor, all received through Our Lady of Perpetual Help.

The devotion is centered about the picture of the Mother of Perpetual Help, which was first enthrough in St. Joseph's 74 years ago. The original is hanging in mother church of the Redemp-torist Congregation. A reliable tradition states that the picture lathe prototype of one supposedly painted by St. Luke.

RACH NOVENA service con-sists of prayers to the Blessed Virgin, a brief sermon and Benediction of the Bleased Sacra-ment. After each service the picture of the Mother of Perpet-

College Pamphlet Contest Slated

Washington - (NC) - As a means of counteracting atheistic philosophy, economics and sociology being taught in many non-Catholic universities and col-leges, the Washington chapter of the Kappa Gamma Pi, na-tional society of Catholic college women, has announced that it will inaugerate a nation-wide pamphiet project.

The project was conceived be fore the war, but conditions prevented its being put into opera-tion until the preset. It is open to all members of Kappa Gamma Pl except those of the Washington chapter. The plan entails gathering material for a pamphlet on apologetics which will be distributed through the Newman Clubs in colleges and universities. Manuscripts in easy form may be submitted on either or both of the topics, "Why the Catholic Church Opposes Comminisms," and "The Peoples of the Catholic Church." The dead-lim for entries is January 1 and $25 award will be made for the best essay.
