Frank Sheed Lecture Set Sunday in Culture Series

Frank J. Sheed, founder of the publishing house of Sheed & Ward, and internationally known author and lecturer, will speak on "Theology and Sanity" in the next lecture of the Aquinas Christian Culture Series at Aquinas Institute auditorium on Sunday evening, Nov. 30 at 8:15 p. m.

An Australian of Irish descent, Mr. Sheed has been a leading figure in Catholic publishing and writing activities for over 20 years.

The firm he founded with his wife, Maisie Ward, lists the best known Catholic authors in Europe and America and is distinguished for the positive expression of Catholic thought for the whole world. Among the writers whom Sheed & Ward have published are Chesterton, Belloc, Dawson, Noyes, Father Leonard Feeney, Father Walter Farrell, Lunn, Claudel, Maritain, Gheon and many others.

For over 25 years Mr. Sheed has been a speaker of the Westminster Catholic Evidence Guild whose members teach Catholic doctrine on London street corners.

As the chief instructor of the Guild speakers, Sheed has addressed over 3,000 street-corner and indoor meetings in England and America. Among his written works are "A Map of Life," "Communism and Man," "Theology and Sanity," "Nullity of Marriage."

Party to Boost Fund

Another in a series of benefit parties for St. Anthony's rebuilding fund will be held on Sunday evening in Columbus Center, Elmira commencing at 3 o'clock.

The affair is being sponsored by the Sacred Heart Ladies under the direction of Mesdames Thomas Maycumber, Louis Caporiecie, Edward Rose Sr. and America D'Alolsio.

Provincial

Very Rev. Terence C. McDermott, O.P., has been re-elected for a second term as Provincial of the Dominican Province of St. Joseph, which embraces all Dominican houses in the eastern part of the United States. He was re-elected by the Chapter of the Dominican Fathers held in Washington, D. C.

Childhood Mass Listed

Each year on December 3, the feast of St. Francis Xavier, patron of the missions His Excellency Bishop Kearney celebrates the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass at one of the parish churches in gratitude to the children of that parish for their mission endeavors of the previous school year.

This year Bishop Kearney is celebrating Mass for the children at Holy Trinity School, Webster, at 9 a. m. This school was chosen for its number of ransoms of pagan babies, the sale of Christmas seals and the prayers offered for the welfare of the missions.

Other schools deserving very special mention for their spiritual and material contributions during the school year 1946-'47 are Nazareth Hall, SS. Peter and Paul, St. Joseph, Holy Family, St. Andrew, St. John, Clyde, and Nazareth Model.

Open House Set by H. N.

Plans for handling capacity crowds at the "Open House Party" at St. Augustine's School hall and sponsored by the Holy Name Society are being made by the committee in charge. The Party is scheduled Saturday, Nov. 29. Master of ceremonies will be Raymond Hall.

The Holy Name Society members are being assisted by members of the Rosary Society and Young Ladies Sodality in handling the entertainment program. Admission is free, the committee states.

Chairman Edward Hauser has the assistance of Joseph Voegele, Raymond Crombach, George Dougherty, Robert Dolan, Gerard Wegman, John Leschander Mark Tuohy, John Walton Horace Pullman, Roy Lattimer, Albert Frank and Reg Nagle.

5 Seniors Visit Syracuse Agencies

Five senior sociology students of Nazareth College made a trip to Syracuse with their supervisor, Sister M. Paulette, to confer with heads of various social agencies.

Two of the girls are native Syracusans: Miss Mary E. Burns, 225 Reed Ave., and Miss Peggy Filler, 1506 East Genesee St. Miss Kathleen Fox is a resident of Camillus, Miss Joan McNally of Fayetteville, and Miss Mary K. O'Sullivan of Canandaigua.

Among agencies visited were: Syracuse Catholic Charities, St. Joseph's Hospital, Catholic Youth Association and several others throughout the city.

All these girls are interested in entering the field of social case work or group work after graduation in June.

Farrell and the Misses Mary Weis Avril Cochrane, Adelaide Brennan, Margaret McStravick, Jane Fleming, Mildred Walsh, Rosemary Welch, Helen O'Brien and Mary Kelly.

Chairman for the dinner is Mrs. William R. Sullivan assisted by Mrs. A. William Knittel, Mrs. Philip Callan, Mrs. Edmund Schwab, Mrs. Karl Meng, Mrs. John Kammer, Miss Mildred Curtin and Miss Rose Ferro.

Members of the reservations committee will assist Miss Doris Dierdorf, chairman of decorations.

Arthur Lloyd Act Set by K. of C.

Arthur Lloyd, "the man with the Index Mind," will present his act for members of Rochester Council, Knights of Columbus, at the meeting Thursday, Dec. 4, in Columbus Civic Centre, according to Chairman of the House Committee Rocco F. Natalie.

Lloyd's act is said to be amazing. He answers questions from a series of 10,000 cards which he is able to produce almost instantaneously. Chairman Natalie asserts. Lloyd has traveled with Bob "Believe It Or Not" Ripley, and has appeared among other places at the New York "Glass Hat," Belmont Plaza and Normandie Roof and Boston's Mayfair.

Business session will begin at 8:30 p. m. with Grand Knight John J. Kinney presiding. Lecturer Michael J. Schopp is cooperating in presenting the Arthur Lloyd show.
