Seneca Falls Weddings

Della Vergamini
Auburn — The marriage of Miss Della Vergamini, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Vergamini, Barker St., and Louis Vergamini, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Vergamini, Center St., took place in St. Patrick's Church, Nov. 25. Rev. John P. O'Malley, pastor, performed the ceremony. The bride was escorted by her father, and the groom by his best man, Mr. William Grier. The ceremony was held at 4 o'clock.

A dinner at Lambert's grill and a reception in the afternoon at the A. M. S. Hall followed the ceremony.

Holy Cross Team Hits 2537 Tarby, 593 in Auburn Loop

Auburn — Holy Cross increased their lead in the St. Anthony's Holy Name Bowling League another point as they rolled a 2537 total to blank Gohanga. The Crusaders were so inspired by their sparkling play that they rolled a 2537 total to blank Gohanga. The Crusaders were so inspired by their sparkling play that they rolled a 2537 total to blank Gohanga.

For the losing Gohanga team, Paul Friedel will 531, retained his place as number one bowler of the league.

Steve Tarby of Loyola rolled 220, 126 and 124 for 569 and high three game total of the day. Joe McDonald was on the team too, with 511. This ordinarily should have won for Loyola but Notre Dame was too tough, and dropped Loyola to third place.

JACK FRIEDEL was the leading scorer for the "Fighting Irish" in their battle with the "Knights of St. Anthony's." He rolled 553 to inspire Frank O'Connor to 514, for 200 game of the season. Captain Frank Gato was also a help to Notre Dame in taking three points from Loyola.

Santa Clara rolled on like the "Silver Moon" of song. "Ditch" camp bowler, Harold Jones, only needed to roll 505 for his record. Help from Bill Duma's 503 and Eddie Russell's 500 finished Santa Clara took all four points from Loyola which gave the Crusaders a 2-1 lead in the league.

On the losing side, Captain Gato was a help to Notre Dame in taking three points from Loyola.

As Auburn Knights Honor Prelates

At formal dinner given by Auburn Knights of Columbus for the recently elevated Domestic Prelates of Auburn, principals were seated, Monsignor John A. Conway, V.F., Edwin M. Nolan, chairman and hostmaster, Monsignor William E. Cowen. (Monsignor Adolph Gashen, the third priest honored by His Holiness Pope Pius XII was unable to attend due to confinement in Mercy Hospital). Standing (from left), Rev. Leo McManus, K. of C. Chaplain; John L. Nankiewicz, principal speaker; Mayor Edward T. Boyle, Luke J. Morgan, grand knight. Dinner was held at Osborne Hotel, Auburn, and attracted 300.

Knights of Columbus Honor 3 Monsignori in Auburn

The Knights of Columbus of Auburn have accomplished much, they have overcome many obstacles and they will go on to great achievements.

The loyalty of the Knights of Columbus to their church and to their pastor has been marked over the years and the link between you and the clergy has been welded and never will be broken. You have a noble heritage and you have had leaders of prudence. You have always been united and as thus you can look ahead for years of progress and advancement. I pray that God may bless you and all your future endeavors. May your future be bright and happy. I thank you with all my heart.

Magr. Conway stressed the close relationship between the Knights of Columbus and the Church and clergy and expressed gratitude to His Bishop and to Pope Pius XII for all honors bestowed.

The principal speaker was Attorney John L. Nankiewicz, recently elected City Recorder. In his address of congratulation, he said:

"We shall always remember to night not as a congratulatory meeting of the Knights of Columbus, in the ordinary sense, rather, it will be a memory on the part of us gathered here of an event in the history of our community, the purpose of which is to show our appreciation to three gentlemen of the Church whose lives have been dedicated exclusively to devoted service to the Church and all of their fellowmen."

"The life of a priest is the constant heartbeat of love for one's fellow man, unrelated to events. It is the ceaseless working of a mind which thinks of nothing else than to do good. It is a life of sacrifice and exhaustion which combine in that effort."

"The heart, the mind and the body, working together in routine, unbroken and unending manner in furthering the purposes for which HE above us, created all, is life. Praising the dignity of a priest's work, Mr. Nankiewicz said:

"Through the years, there is the constant call for spiritual guidance and concern for his flock. He answers as the good shepherd will and many times, frees an occasional sheep from the thorny weeds which envelop him. He greets his parishioners when they come in arms to church for the first time, he sorrows when one of his flock departs, he bestows the blessings of God upon all with whom he comes in contact."

"He is watchful, ever caring, ever helpful. He asks for no credit, only receives none. His life is not his own. It belongs to those whom he shepherds to the end. There are no worldly honors or accolades for him. There is glory and fame, however."

Geneva — Miss Bernice Marie Huffman, daughter of Mrs. Essie Huffman of Newburgh, N. C., was married to John Fred Katter, son of Mrs. Margaret Katter, 429 Castle street, Wednesday, Nov. 25, at St. Stephen's Church.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Robert Fennedy. James Lynch was organist. Miss Audrey Ritter, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor.

A wedding breakfast was served for the bride party and immediate families at the Hotel Seneca.

The couple now on a southern trip will reside in Geneva.

O'Malley - Flood
Miss Helen O'Malley of Corn In, formerly of Geneva, was united in marriage to William E. Flood, also of Corn In, Saturday, Nov. 15, in St. Vincent de Paul's Church, Corning.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Joseph E. Gulliford pastor of the church.

Attendants were Mrs. Lloyd Garrison of Geneva, sister of the bride and William McMahon of Corning.

After the ceremony the couple left on an eastern trip. They will reside in Corning.

Spina - Fosperso
The wedding of Miss Norine Spina, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Spina, 91 N. Exchange St., to Paul Fosperso of Lake Rd., took place on Thursday, Nov. 13, at 10 a. m. at St. Francis de Sales Church.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Edward K. Ball pastor of the church. Miss John Dinofrio, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Miss Jane DeLeo was maid of honor. Mr. Edward Shultz, cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid.

Como Fosperso, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Edward Shultz was usher.

A wedding dinner was served for the bride party and guests at Miner's. A reception followed.

After a wedding trip to New York, the couple will reside on North Exchange St.

Lincoln Rochester Opens New Trust Department
New quarters for the trust department of Lincoln Rochester Trust Company on the sixth floor of the Lincoln Rochester Building, 183 Main St. East will be opened to the public on Dec. 9.

The entire sixth floor renovated after four months work accommodates securities, tabulating and bookkeeping divisions and is air conditioned.

The new quarters combine the department formerly located on the ground floor of the main office of Lincoln Rochester with that of the Rochester Trust Office at the Four Corners.

K. of C. Open Radio Series

Auburn — A series of 20 weekly Sunday broadcasts was launched at 1 o'clock Sunday over Station WJMO under the auspices of Auburn Council, Knights of Columbus. The initial broadcast, which was opened by Rev. E. Leo McManus, council chaplain, was participated in by Thomas Vail John Welch, Carroll Caffrey and Edwin M. Nolan.

A large delegation of Auburn Knights, headed by Grand Knight Luke J. Bergan, motored to Geneva Sunday, Nov. 23, to witness the evangelization of the third degree and to participate in the program that followed. There was a large class of candidates from this, the 55th district, and 25 candidates from Auburn. The ceremonies were under the supervision of District Deputy Victor DeWeaver of Newark and they were put on by the Utica degree team of which District Deputy Joseph Foley is leader.

Holy Family Five Opens Court Year

Auburn — Selected to lead the Holy Family High School basketball team for the 1947-1948 season is Richard "Bluff" Woods. The Purple and Gold squad began its operations Wednesday at Waterloo and was at home to Smith Technical School of Syracuse, a new high school in Syracuse.

With the announcement that Woods will captain the squad also came the game schedule for Coach A. Crowley's leads, the schedule listing 18 contests ten on Auburn courts and eight away from home. This year Holy Family is a member of the North New York Catholic School League and in the Western Division of that circuit, so three of the home contests will bring league squads to town.

The Purple and Gold lads have been hard at work at Fulton Street School in pre-season practice. Coach Crowley has carved his squad down to about 12 saplings. Among the dozen, Crowley has four with varsity experience. They are Captain Woods, Bob Gallo, Tommy Ryan, Dick Fitzgerald, who were regulars with Dick Walton a year ago. Moving up from the junior varsity squad are Joe Bruton, Jack Fitzgibbon, Jack Meehan, Dick Del Monte and Jerry Gallo.
