Eastern Rite Services Attract 650 Elmirans

A Solemn High Mass in the Byzantine-Slavonic rite brought together more than 650 Elmira Catholics of both Roman and Eastern rites Thanksgiving morning at SS. Peter and Paul's Church under the sponsorship of the Elmira Deanery Council of Holy Name Societies.

Celebrating the Mass was the Very Rev. Waldimir B. Dowhovich, pastor of St. Nicholas Ukrainian Catholic Church, Elmira, and the Rev. Stephen P. Shymansky, assistant pastor at St. Nicholas' was deacon.

The combined choirs of St. Nicholas and of Ascension of Our Lord Church, Sayre, Pa., sang the responses. Members of Fahoh Macekur Post, Catholic War Veterans, were ushers.

Rev. John J. Scanlon, S.J., of Buffalo, noted Eastern rites authority, described the service.

FATHER SCANLON in marking the differences in the Roman rite and the Byzantine-Slavonic rite, went back to the origin of Christian worship in the synagogue under the Old Law.

He explained that Christ at the Last Supper, which symbolized His death on the Cross, told His apostles to reenact the ceremony of the breaking of the bread and the sharing of the wine in His memory and at the same time told them to go forth and teach all nations.

The Byzantine-Slavonic rite, also known as the liturgy of St. John Chrysostom, Archbishop of Constantinople from the years 397 to 403 A. D., was translated into the old Slavonic tongue in the year 860 A. D. with the approval of Pope John VIII. It is used by seven and a half million Catholics in the East and at least a half-million in the United States.

BOTH THE ROMAN and the Byzantine rites offer Christ's Body and Blood as an act of adoration, thanksgiving, as a means of making satisfaction for sin and obtaining grace and blessings.

The differences are in ceremonies used, vestments and gestures. The Byzantine rite uses a profound bow while the Roman rites use the genuflection and the Sign of the Cross is made from right to left in the Eastern rites, while in the Roman it is made from left to right.

Father Scanlon emphasized that the existence of 21 rites all perpetuating the sacrifice of Calvary in essentially the same manner illustrates the unity of the Catholic faith.
