Memorial Mass Honors 12 Corning War Dead

Corning — On Thanksgiving Day at 8:30 a. m. a Solemn High Mass was celebrated in St. Vincent de Paul's Church to honor war veterans of the parish and to commemorate the memory of the 12 men of the parish who made the supreme sacrifice. Serving as assistant of the Mass was the Rev. J. Edward McKay, assistant pastor. The Rev. William L. Reed, assistant pastor, and the Rev. William Gaynor of St. Patrick's Parish, Elmira, were deacon and subdeacon, respectively. Father Gaynor gave the sermon.

School children in uniform, 12 of whom carried gold stars representing those young men who gave their lives for their country, marched into the church. Four Navy veterans, Anthony Rusoco, Joseph Maloney, Daniel Killgrew, Jr., and Rosario Miller served on the altar. Patrick Bonady and Joseph Anastasi, dressed in their Marine uniforms, acted as color bearers, with one carrying the American Flag and the other holding the Papal Flag. Anthony Yorio and Bernard Miller in Army uniforms served as color guards and Donald Schroeder in his Navy uniform was cross bearer.

Father Gaynor in his talk stressed the need for a lasting peace and the necessity of combatting subversive elements.

The Girls' Choir provided special music for the occasion.

St. John Sodality Slates Parties

Members of the Sodality of Our Lady of St. John's Church, Elmira, have resumed their weekly card parties each Wednesday evening in the church hall. The parties are open to the public and have become popular with both young and old. Euchre, bridge and five hundred are played, prizes are awarded and refreshments served. Tickets are 40 cents and are on sale at the door.

The annual Christmas party for the sodality and altar society will be held in the church hall on Monday evening, Dec. 15. All members of both societies are invited to attend and each one is asked to bring a 50-cent gift to be exchanged during the evening.

The committee is planning a program of Christmas music and other entertainment and refreshments will be served during the evening. Members of the committee are Mrs. James Hoy, Mrs. George Hasselwander, Miss Rosemary Radford and Miss Margaret Kennedy.

Bona Medal Given Chicago Editor

Olean — (NC) — Presentation of the Catholic Action Medal to Clement Lane, Chicago journalist, was made at St. Bonaventure College here by Bishop John F. O'Hara, C.S.C., of Buffalo, highlighting the annual alumni homecoming-day program.

Mr. Lane is the fourteenth winner of the award, bestowed annually by St. Bonaventure College on a layman outstanding in Catholic action. He received the award in recognition of his work in the field of Christian family life.

Hungarian Priest Flees to Belgium

Brussels — (RNS) — The Rev. Milan Gunacies, Greek Orthodox priest who was once imprisoned by the Nazis, has arrived in Belgium after fleeing Hungary.

His flight from Russian-dominated Hungary began shortly after he had advised his congregation "not to vote for any extremist parties" in the last general election, "but to put your faith in those whose political institutions permit a Church to be free and the Word of God to be spoken."

K. C. Banquet Set on Feb. 1

Corning—The golden anniversary banquet of the local Council of the Knights of Columbus, which was scheduled for Dec. 2, has been postponed until February 1.

J. Colton Marx, grand knight, said the change was due to the illness of William B. Burke of Utica who was to have been the principal speaker.

Msgr. Hochwalt Honored

Cincinnati — (NC) — Five Cincinnati priests, including Msgr. Frederick G. Hochwalt, who is serving as director of the Department of Education of the National Catholic Welfare Conference, Washington, have been elevated by His Holiness Pope Pius XII to the rank of Domestic Prelate with the title of Right Reverend Monsignor. The five previously had been honored with the rank of Papal Chamberlain.

Newly Formed Women's Group Elects Officers

Nearly one hundred members attended the December meeting of the newly organized Immaculate Heart Society at SS. Peter and Paul's Church last Monday night.

After services in the church the women met in the Parish Hall which had been decorated with Christmas ornaments. A Christmas tree, brightly lighted, was the center of attraction.

Rev. William J. Naughton opened the meeting with prayer. At the business meeting Mrs. John Clark, chairman of the committee in charge of rehabilitating the kitchen, reported on the number of women who had aided her and the number of hours spent in the work.

Mrs. Fred Causer, chairman of the nominating committee, reported that the following had been selected by that committee: Miss Frances Battersby, president; Mrs. Leonard Sullivan, vice president; Miss Stella Jones, treasurer, and Miss Anastasia Rosinski, secretary.

The business meeting was followed by a Christmas party at which there was an exchange of gifts. Mrs. Leonard Sullivan was chairman of the Christmas party, and was ably assisted by the following: Mesdames James Haw, Jr., Charles Hemingway, Fred Jones, Estella Blabee, Margaret Johnston, William Supple, John Clark, Sr., Joseph Rice, Sr., Anna Everetts, Vincent Laughlin, Walter Lofstrom, Edward Barchet, Kenneth Dimon, and Misses Babe Crowley and Stella Jones.

First Dominican Habit Conferred in Elmira Rite

By MARY E. FITZGERALD

Rosary Chapel in the Dominican Monastery of the Perpetual Rosary was filled to overflowing on Nov. 21. The occasion was the Clothing or the Reception of the first postulant to receive the habit of the order of St. Dominic in the Elmira Monastery and in the Diocese of Rochester.

Celebrant of the Mass was the Most Rev. James E. Kearney, D.D., Bishop of Rochester. He was assisted by the Rev. Dr. John E. Maney, Vice-Chancelor of the Diocese, the Rev. J. Edmund O'Brien, monastery chaplain, and the Rev. Fathers Leo and Paul Hammerl, brothers of the postulant.

Also in the sanctuary were the Rt. Rev. Msgr. William J. Brien, V.F., of Elmira; Very Rev. Msgr. Gerald C. Lambert of Rochester, Rev. William Dorfiln of Buffalo, and the Rev. Fathers Leo G. Schwab, Francis E. Reilly, William J. Naughton and Phillip McGhan of Elmira.

Following the Mass Bishop Kearney, seated at the choir grille, addressed the young postulant, who dressed as a bride, was presented to him by the Mother Prioress.

His first words "What do you ask"—brought the answer, "God's mercy and yours." Then His Excellency continued, "Do you wish to receive the holy habit and to observe the Constitution of the Nuns of the Sacred Order of Preachers?"—and the reply came quickly and steadily "Yes Most Reverend Bishop, this I wish and desire by the grace of God."

Following the sweet tones of "Veni Creator," the Prioress assisted by the Mistress of Novices —gave the religious habit to the postulant within the choir or Sister's Chapel.

Kneeling at the Communion window, the newly clothed Novice received the blessed Crucifix and Rosary. Then, she chose the crown of thorns in preference to the one of roses, which rested beside it saying "I choose the crown of thorns."

And the name which is to be hers in religion was given by the Bishop with the words "In the world you were called Coletta Hammerl, in the order, your name shall be Sister Mary Margaret of the Blessed Sacrament."

In closing the beautiful ceremony, Bishop Kearney said in part — "Three times our Divine Saviour knocked on the door of one household; first to call a son to the priesthood, then another son and finally the flower of the flock, this young girl, to the religious life.

Continuing, he said "Jesus Christ came often to this door, because He knew that He was welcome. It is seldom that He returns a third or even a second time. You and I know that this young girl has chosen the better part the consecration of her entire life to the service of Jesus Christ through the contemplative life of a Dominican Sister."

"It is to be hoped that this ceremony will be the first of many, as other young girls find their way to this Community and to a dedication to Jesus Christ and to His Immaculate Mother, the Queen of the Holy Rosary."

Sister Mary Margaret as is customary in a cloistered order, will remain in the Elmira Monastery. The Community now includes eight nuns, who came from Buffalo on Aug. 16, 1944; Sister Margaret and one other postulant, who entered on Oct. 15, the Feast of St. Theresa.

Korea Hails Vatican Envoy

Maryknoll — (NC) — Koreans have been cheered greatly by the arrival in their country of Msgr. Patrick J. Byrne, first Apostolic Visitator to Korea, according to advices received at Maryknoll Mission headquarters here.

Monsignor Byrne, a Maryknoll missioner who was stationed in Japan throughout the war, also saw missionary duty in Korea and is well acquainted with the people and the country.

One newspaper, Kyeng Hyang Shin Mun, the report states, reminded that the Vatican exchanges ambassadors with 33 countries "and in a way the coming of Monsignor Byrne means that Korea, a country without a government, divided in half, occupied by the American Army in the South and the Russian Army in the North, has at last been given a degree of diplomatic recognition. The Korean people are very grateful."

Upon his arrival in Seoul, the advices continued, Monsignor Byrne was scheduled to deliver an address in the Catholic Cathedral. Such a tremendous crowd turned out for the occasion that the meeting was transferred to the plaza in front of the Cathedral.

Catholic Vets Head Backs Marshall Plan

Philadelphia — (NC) — Communists are working feverishly to alienate the United States and Europe, Max H. Sorensen, national Catholic War Veterans commander declared here by urging speedy cooperation to prevent the fall of United States allies.

Sorensen spoke to members of the LaSalle College Alumni Association at a Communion breakfast. He told his listeners that Americans should help Europe's war victims through the Marshall plan and said the amount of self help Europe is accomplishing and the additional aid of the Marshall plan will bring full economic recovery.

100,00 Bricks Salvaged

Cologne—(NC)— Nearly 100,000 bricks were cleaned and salvaged during the past six weeks from the rubble of the city of Hagen, Westphalia, by boys and girls who are members of Catholic youth groups in that war ravaged city. The bricks were made available to the municipality to rebuild destroyed homes.

Delegate Says UNESCO Mass

Mexico City — A warning that without the acknowledgement of God the world's citizens cannot live together like a human family was made by Msgr. Jean Maroun, chief Lebanese delegate to the second general conference of UNESCO, at a Solemn Pontifical Mass offered in connection with the conference here.

The Mass, held in the Guadalupan Basilica here, was celebrated by Archbishop Luis Martinez of Mexico City.

As far as Catholics are concerned, Monsignor Maroun stated, the assembly is being opened with a prayer to God for enlightenment and for His blessings on the far-reaching decisions being made here by representatives of many countries.

Among those attending the Mass were Jacques Maritain, French Ambassador to the Vatican and chairman of the French delegation at the conference; Canon Jean Rupp of Paris, who is attending the session as an observer and Catholic delegates from the United States, Belgium, Switzerland, Columbia, Canada, Lebanon and Mexico. Attending the conference as an advisor to the U. S. delegation is Msgr. Frederick G. Hochwalt, director of the Department of Education, National Catholic Welfare Conference and member of the U. S. UNESCO commission.

Reds Leave for Winter, Missions Safe

Fushun, Manchuria — (NC) — American missions in southern Manchuria seem safe from attack for the next three or four months, reports the Rev. Joseph McCormack, Maryknoll Superior. He said Communists are retreating into warmer areas for the winter.

The city of Fushun is still the only free territory in the Fushun Diocese but the past eight months have been one constant period of tension, Father McCormack said, with attack from the Reds expected at any moment.

Irish Farmers Boycott Hunt Headed by Divorcee

Dublin — (RNS) — A virtual boycott of the famous Galway "Blazers" — the County Galway Hunt — has been staged by the farmers of East Galway as a protest against the election of a divorced woman to the joint mastership of the hunt.

Predominantly Catholic, the farmers of this area of County Galway who, previously, were keen supporters of the hunt, and gave the "Blazers" every facility, will not now allow the hunt to take place over their lands.

The Catholic Bishop of Clonfert, Dr. John Dignan, gave a lead to the farmers in the Loughrea district when he had the following notice posted on the entrance gate of his residence at Coorheen:

"Notice is hereby given that the privilege heretofore granted to the County Galway Hunt (The "Blazers") of entering the lands occupied by me at Coorheen is hereby withdrawn."

The Sister Superior of St. Vincent's Convent at Coolarne, over the lands of which the hunt had in the past been free to pass, has locked the convent entrance gates against the hunt.
