Knights at Stag Party

A Stag Christmas Party and Dinner for members of St. Elmo Commandery, Knights of St. John, is scheduled for Saturday, Dec. 20, in the Liederkranz Club at 6 p. m. Chicken dinner, cards and other entertainment features are planned with Adam Grabb to appear in the role of Santa Claus.

DCCW Erects Own Nativity Crib in NYC Station Lobby

A Christmas Crib provided for New York Central Station by the Diocesan Council of Catholic Women will be located in the station just below the stairs from Friday, Dec. 19 to Tuesday, Jan. 6.

The Council, which formerly borrowed a crib from St. Bernard's Seminary, will have its own Christmas shrine this year through the generosity of Mrs. Charles W. Mayer. Figures in the crib are 21 inches high.

Music will also be furnished from Monday, Dec. 22 until Saturday, Dec. 27 through the courtesy of the Catholic organization and the Council of Church Women of Rochester and vicinity. The Musak Company will have charge of musical selections.

Floral arrangements will be handled by Sours Florist of East Avenue with the display copied after one set up for service men overseas.

The public is invited to inspect the Crib.

Display will be set up by Mrs. Michael Keogh, Rochester diocesan chairman of Shrines; Mrs. Elmer Loritz, Rochester Deanery chairman of Shrines, Mrs. Richard Kath, Rochester Diocesan President; Mrs. Harry Ferree, under supervision of the Rev Albert Shamon, Rochester Diocesan Moderator.

Clothing is Packed By Immaculate Guild

Articles of clothing for the needy were packed and shipped at the regular meeting of the Immaculate Rosary Guild last week.

Officers elected at this meeting are: Miss Anna Coyne, president; Mrs. Frank Spencer, first vice president; Mrs. Frederick Reach, second vice president; Miss Ida Fleming, secretary; Mrs. Raymond Creedon, treasurer.

These officers will take over at the January meeting.

The members of the Guild received a statement of appreciation from Mrs. Raymond Creedon, retiring president, who thanked them for their cooperation during the past five years of her term of office.

Christmas

The snow is falling lightly,
While Santa's on his way,
The stars are shining brightly
And everybody's gay.

All the folks are singing
A well known Christmas song,
All the church bells' ringing
Loud and clear and strong.

The tree is proudly standing
So tall and gay and slim,
And everybody's playing
Even Grandpa Jim.

Themselves with food their filling
On this great Christmas Day,
And everyone is willing
To take time out and pray.

We thank the Lord for coming
To this vastly world of ours,
And end the day in begging
May Peace be always ours.

Clergy, Lay Leaders Prepare For Men's College Campaign

Diocesan clergy and lay leaders were selected this week to head the campaign to raise $1,047,236 for the new St. John Fisher College.

Although the formal drive to be conducted in every parish in the Rochester Diocese is scheduled for February 12 to 23, preliminary work already is underway.

His Excellency, Bishop Kearney outlined the need for a diocesan college in a series of organization talks to the clergy and laity during the past week. He pointed to the ideal location of the new college on a 72-acre plot of land purchased by the Basilian Fathers at the intersection of Fairport Road and East Avenue on the southeastern outskirts of Rochester.

GENERAL CHAIRMAN of the campaign is Joseph J. Myler, secretary-treasurer of Neimer Brothers, Inc. and president of the Men of Aquinas. Otto A. Shults of the Wilson, Shults & Co., certified public accountants, is chairman of the Special Gifts Committee.

Twenty-three priests, selected as zone directors, held a preliminary meeting in Rochester Tuesday noon to hear brief talks by Bishop Kearney, Rt. Rev. Msgr. William M. Hart, V.G., the Very Rev. Msgr. John S. Randall, the Rev. Hugh J. Halfey, C.S.B., executive director of St. John Fisher and Chairmen Myler and Shults.

Basile to Head San Rocco Unit

Ashura — The San Rocco Society of St. Francis d'Assisi Church held election of officers Saturday, Dec. 6, at Graceffo Hall in Wall street.

Elected were: President, Domenic Basile; vice president, Vincent DeAngelis; financial secretary, John Galiso, Jr.; recording secretary, John Manzari; secretary-treasurer, Vito L. Mortunato; first trustee, Ralph S. Fortunato, second trustee, Antonio Bellomo; sergeant-at-arms, Domenico Valerio; color bearers, Rocco Poss and Vito Acito, Jr.

The ceremony of installation will take place in January. President Basile stressed unity and co-operation among all to create good will and harmony within the organization.

Parents at Academy

Parents of seniors at Nazareth Academy met with the faculty members Sunday and were later entertained with music and luncheon in the school gymnasium. The faculty reports a large turnout of the parents for the customary check-up on their daughters' scholastic standings.

Students Choose Nazareth Girl

Nazareth College students participated in the New York State Regional Meeting of the National Students Association in a one-day convention held at the Prince St. Campus.

Miss Kathleen Keenan of Nazareth College received secretary of the Executive Board and Miss Ann Mackinnon were official representatives of the college. A number of other students attended as observers.

Resolutions favoring creation of a "real" New York state University and opposing all types of discrimination by publicly-supported educational institutions were adopted.

A new constitution was written and unanimously approved to be ratified by individual chapters.

Frank Dowd of the University of Rochester named president said the National Students Association is composed of student governing bodies of American colleges, and universities designed to coordinate the efforts of students in developing better student outlook, social and physical conditions and for fostering international understanding.

Powers Unit DVA Endorses Blood Bank

Lee W. and Robert L. Powers Chapter No. 30, Disabled American Veterans, has gone on record endorsing the new Red Cross Blood Bank being established in Rochester.

Plans were also completed at a recent meeting for the first annual banquet to be held Monday, Jan. 12, at Lerner's.

Commander Charles E. Baldon has appointed the following committee: Paul M. Caprio, chairman; Donald Weeks, tickets; John Manning, floor committee; John C. Karp, publicity, and Charles A. Phelps, decorations.
