Mercy Guild Board Members To Map Program for Quarter

Members of the Board of Directors of the Mercy Guild of the Little Flower will meet at the home of Mrs. Edward C. Belkirch, 66 Bradburn St., next Wednesday evening, Jan. 7 at 8 p. m.

All officers, members of the Board of Directors, and chairmen of the standing committees are cordially invited to attend this important meeting. A program of events for the first quarter of the current year will be planned.

The projected plans of activities will be offered to the members of the Mercy Guild Tuesday afternoon, Jan. 13 at a meeting at 2 p. m. at the Catholic Women's Club on Alexander. Mrs. Frank L. Gifford, president will preside.

Basilian College Head to Address St. Josaphat Men

Marking their fifth anniversary, members of St. Josaphat's Holy Name Society will hear the Rev. Louis J. Hoody, C.S.B., president of St. Michael's College, Toronto at a Communion breakfast, Sunday, Jan. 11.

Assisting at 9 o'clock Low Mass, the members will receive Holy Communion in a body at St. Josaphat's Church. Breakfast will be in the parish hall.

Father Hoody who will be in Rochester to speak in the Christian Culture series at Aquinas Institute will address St. Josaphat's Holy Name men on "The Christian Family in the Unchristian State."

The Basilian Father's topic will cover the decreasing influence of Christianity in the social forces around us, making it the duty of Catholics to emphasize their faith increasingly in their homes, the Holy Name committee states.

Westfall-Downs Win Doubles Tournament

Westfall-Downs combination with 2151 captured top honors in the All-Winter Mixed Doubles tournament Sunday at Columbus Civic Centre alleys, managed by Joseph J. Garin.

Other results when Noakes-W. Woerner Jr., 1156; Johnson-Rooney, 1139; Kuhn-Natalie, 1129; Tanis-R. Sullivan, 1125; Hughes-McNalley, 1093; McGinnis-Sargent, 1088.

Catholic Warnings Against Reds Cited

Washington — (NC) — Warnings from Catholic sources against the communist menace in the United States were reechoed by Representative William C. Cole of Missouri, in an address before the House of Representatives.

Mr. Cole spoke in favor of a pending bill which would bar un-American political parties from the election ballot. In the course of his address, he recalled that in 1945 a group of U. S. Catholic Bishops warned against "the active, cleverly organized and directed opposition of Marxian totalitarianism" as opposed to "genuine democracy."

Imperia Cabrini Clinic

Rome— (NC) —The donor of the statue of St. Frances Xavier Cabrini, recently placed and dedicated in St. Peter's Basilica, Thomas L. Warner of Chicago, has left for Milan to inspect the new Columbus Clinic operated by the Sisters of Mother Cabrini there.

County Judge King's Rites Conducted in Corning

Corning—George A. King, 57, judge of Steuben County and Children's Court, died Saturday, Dec. 27, at Dansville Memorial Hospital after a long illness. He was born in Dansville, Oct. 30, 1890.

Shortly after receiving his law degree at the University of Buffalo in 1917, Judge King enlisted in the Aviation Division of the U. S. Marine Corps and served as second Lieutenant at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology and the Marine Flying Field, Miami, Fla.

Since 1919 Judge King has been a resident of Corning and was active in the professional and political life. He was elected to the office of district attorney on the Republican ticket in November, 1930 and in 1940 was elected to succeed Edwin S. Brown of Cohocton, as county judge. In 1945 he was elected to a six year term.

As judge of the Children's court Judge King was noted for his kindness and consideration.

Judge King and Miss Kathryn Towner of Hornell were united in marriage in Baltimore, Md., three years ago.

A member of St. Mary's Church and the Holy Name Society, Judge King was also affiliated with the Corning, Steuben County and State Bar Associations. He was a member of Corning Lodge of Elks, Corning Lodge of Moose and John P. Eaton Post, American Legion. For many years he headed the Republican City Committee.

Funeral services were held Tuesday at 10:30 a. m. in St. Mary's Church. Burial was in Greenmount Cemetery, Dansville.

Corning—Mrs. Susie McCabe, 177 W. Second st., died at Corning Hospital Tuesday, Dec. 23. She was born in Tioga, Pa., the daughter of Mr and Mrs. Peter Burns. She was married to John McCabe in 1907 in St. Mary's Church. She was a member of St. Mary's Church and the League of the Sacred Heart.

Mrs. McCabe is survived by one sister, Mrs. John Rooney of this city and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were held Friday at 8:30 a. m. from the home and at 9 o'clock in St. Mary's Church. Burial was in St. Mary's Cemetery.

Club Picks Msgr. Sheen Book

Springfield, Mass. — (NC) — "Jesus, Son of Mary," a story for children by Msgr Fulton J. Sheen, is the Christmas selection for younger children of the Junior Book Club. The Club's Christmas selection for boys is "The Hand in the Picture," a story about Poland by Eris Kelly.

Holy Rosary Knights Double Membership in '47 Campaign

With an increased enrollment of 50 percent in membership and two Catholic high school scholarships established, Holy Rosary Commandery, Knights of St. John, closed the 1947 year.

John T. Nothnagle was re-elected president.

Among other achievements of the year just closed, the Holy Rosary Knights founded a scholarship in the parish for a boy at Aquinas Institute and a girl at Nazareth Academy.

The Commandery was the first in Rochester Regiment to double the nation-wide quota of a 25 per cent increase outlined by the national organization for 1947.

Other officers elected were First Vice President Frank Goodberlet; Second Vice President Al Scranton; Recording Secretary, George Mallory. Financial Secretary Ambrose Wolfe. Treasurer Vernon Hart and Chairman of Board of Trustees, Carl Zimmer.

Radio Plays Urged

Alexandria, La.—(NC)—In a letter read in churches of the Diocese of Alexandria, Bishop Charles P. Greco advocated establishment of a Catholic radio guild in this city. The Diocese has two radio programs from 1:30 to 2 p. m. Sunday over KPDR, and from 9 to 9:30 p. m. Monday over KALB—but Bishop Greco wishes provision made for the presentation of plays over the radio.

Maryknoll Students

New York—New vocations for the Maryknoll priesthood from the Atlantic States exclusive of New England reached a record high of 122 during 1947. This brings a total from these same states in the Maryknoll student body to 330. Atlantic States from New York to Florida represent 42% of the present Maryknoll enrollment of 785 students.
