Japan Catholic Press Unit Starts

Tokyo — (NC) — A Catholic Press Association for Japan has been organized here in meeting of editors and newspaper reporters held at the Catholic Club in downtown Tokyo.

The association will seek to coordinate the activities of all Catholic newspapers now in the country, and to promote the cause of Catholic culture in close conjunction with Catholicism in other countries. Locally, special efforts will be made to cooperate with the existing Catholic publications. In fact, lecture courses, etc. Catholic representatives of the local broadcasting agencies as well as newspaper men are eligible as members.
